ACHS referendum to be chaired by citizens

by MARY FOLEY
Lakeland Newspapers

Antioch Community High School is planning, once again, to convince voters to pass a referendum to increase funding to the school. Unlike in the past, however, this time the referendum will be chaired, and fueled by local citizens.

District 117's Superintendent, Dr. Robert Schley kicked-off an organizational drive to get local residents behind the funding proposal.

"I will do whatever I can legally do for you," Schley told the audience. "But, it is your referendum. I cannot pass it for you. It is up to you."

On August 18, the Board of Education approved the placement of a referendum on the November ballot. The board is asking for a $.27 increase, which is 25 percent lower than the request of the April referendum.

There are several factors which resulted in this lowered amount. First of all, in a surprising move the state legislature increased the amount of state aid for the 1993-94 school year. Instead of losing an anticipated $200,000 in state aid, the amount was actually increased by almost $189,000. This action provided a budgetary windfall of almost $400,000.

Another reason for the decrease is that the cuts made in the budget over the last two years had a greater impact on the overall financial situation than was expected. The board has gotten back to the basics and cut costs as much as possible. Some of these measures included reducing extra-curricular activity, seven and a half staff positions, and an overall reduction of administration costs.

The need for the increase is pretty apparent. The education fund deficit is more than $2 million. According to Schley, the money is needed to update some of the school's technology and to reduce class sizes.

"We need a tremendous infusion of money for technology," explained Schley. "Furthermore, we have one of the largest

Gang task force gets ready for rally, parade

Lakeland Newspapers

The Community Outreach Uniting Residents Against Gang Environment (COURAGE) is planning a rally and parade to communicate the group's zero tolerance approach to gang activity in Lake County. The event will be kicked-off by a torch run from Antioch through to the Lake County Fairgrounds by various Lake County police officers.

The parade will begin at 10 a.m. at College of Lake County. After the parade, a rally will be held at the fairgrounds featuring keynote speakers. The COURAGE event planning committee invites the public to participate in its first major event.

COURAGE is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to the education, prevention, and intervention of gangs in Lake County. Police, officials, educators, and residents in four localities, Lake Villa, Antioch, Grayslake, and Lindenhurst have combined to stem the flow of gang activity.

Guest speaker, Tony Quinn of court services spoke at the last COURAGE meeting. Besides showing a videotape of a successful task force in Colorado, Quinn had some advice to both parents and the group.

"Action is what it takes to solve gang problems," said Quinn. "Walking the talk, it is as simple as that." Quinn indicated that simply talking about zero tolerance is not enough and that the words need to be followed up by action.

"If you are talking zero tolerance, then

Digging up history

As work crews dig up a portion of Rte. 120, about a quarter of a mile east of the triangle at Rte. 60, an old brick road is unearthed. The bricks are believed to be part of Plank road, which ran between Waukegan and McHenry before it was paved over with what is now State Rte. 120.—Photo by Gene Gabry

New arts group in town

by CLAUDIA M. LENART
Lakeland Newspapers

Another cultural group has been born in Antioch. Formation of Festival of Arts of Antioch, Inc. is currently underway.

Ken Smouse, one of the founders of PM&L Theatre, will serve as artistic director for Festival of Arts. However, the new group is a totally separate entity from PM&L.

The group's first project, and original purpose for forming, is to stage a production of "Kiss Me Kate," at the Antioch High School auditorium in January and February. The production will be one of the special events kicking off the Centennial Celebration for the State Bank of Antioch.

Smouse was approached by State Bank of Antioch President Randy Miles to direct the special production of "Kiss Me Kate." "Randy loves shows," said Smouse. Since a for-profit corporation could not rent the high school auditorium, the Festival of Arts was formed.

However, the life of Festival of Arts will go beyond the initial production. "We have no idea how far it can go. Once we do get going we'll have more of an idea of what we're capable of," said Smouse.

Betty Smouse, Ken's wife and partner, noted that Community Chorus will fall under Festival of Arts and the group could serve as an umbrella for village arts organizations.

Festival of Arts is undergoing incorporation and a board of directors is being selected.

Auditions for "Kiss Me Kate" will be held at 7 p.m., Sept. 13 and 14 at ACHS auditorium.

Janell Cleland received an Award of Merit in the classroom teacher category. School board member Don Smith received an Award of Merit.

Defender wants charges in county drug ring dropped

by SPENCER SCHEIN
Lakeland Newspapers

Saying the alleged crimes took place outside of Lake County, Lake County Public Defender Joseph Collina is trying to get drug indictments against six of the 15 individuals involved in the drug ring emanating out of Chicago and Lake Zurich dismissed.

Collina said the offenses alleged against the individuals he is representing took place in Cook and Kane counties, and therefore should not be tried in Lake County.

He also said the charges levied against them are not specific enough, lacking the quantities, dates and names of people who allegedly bought drugs from his clients, including: Lake Zurich residents Leopold Ischer, 27; and Richard Ischer, 35, George Rodriguez, 23, Marco Rodriguez, 30, of Carpentersville, Jorge Rodriguez, 34, of Elgin and Bonard Clifton, 32, of Palatine.

Sean Burke, a Lake County assistant state's attorney prosecuting the case along with the Illinois attorney general's office, said he did not want to speculate on the actions of the public defender's office.

"I think the charges are appropriate based on the evidence we have and we are going to proceed further," Burke said.

The defendants have all pleaded inno-

Car wash to benefit injured firefighter

WAUCONDA—The Wauconda Fire Department wants to hose down your car, or van, or any other motor vehicle that needs a good, professional cleaning to help benefit their injured partner and friend. They are sponsoring a car wash this Saturday as a benefit for James E. Johnson who is still improving from a gunshot wound suffered almost two months ago on July 13. Fifty personnel and their spouses will be volunteering at the day long event being held concurrently at their two stations in Wauconda, 109 W. Liberty St., and Island Lake, 404 E. State Rd., from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Donations will be asked in lieu of a set price.

Cars collide head-on, two killed, two hurt

LINDENHURST—A head-on fiery explosion about on Route 45 a 1/2 mile north of Grass Lake Road killed the drivers of two vehicles as they collided head-on. The impact was so severe the cars exploded. Apparently the driver of one of the vehicles was attempting to pass a boat with a trailer and hit another vehicle head-on. A passenger in one of the vehicles was transported to a Milwaukee burn center. The person hauling the boat received minor injuries when he tried to avoid the accident.

cent to the charges which include calculated drug conspiracy, criminal drug conspiracy and narcotics racketeering, among others.

Eight of the 15 defendants in the drug ring appeared in Lake County Circuit Court Sept. 2 for a preliminary hearing before their trial set for Oct. 12.

The eight defendants included Lake Zurich residents Paul Lopez, 35, Brent Schwarz, 35, Richard Ischer, 35, Eli Zepeda, 30 and Schaumburg resident Robert Adams, 41, Carpentersville residents Frumencio Acevedo, 22, and Marco Rodriguez, 30 and Jorge Rodriguez, 34, of Elgin.

A pretrial date has been set for Sept. 27 for Leopold Ischer, 27, of Lake Zurich, Carpentersville residents Beatriz Rodriguez, 59, George Rodriguez, 23, Kenneth Price, 21 and Bernado Cuellar, 28, and Cortez Shields, 32, and Bonard Clifton, 32, both of Palatine.

Lake County Circuit Judge Charles F. Scott is scheduled to make a decision on the dismissal motion for all 15 individuals on Sept. 21.

Judge Scott is also expected to rule on a request made by an attorney representing Zepeda to separate his case from the others.

Mayor wants village to become home rule area

ROUND LAKE BEACH—Mayor Ralph Davis said home rule is the best way to help pay for capital improvements. He said home rule would allow the village to tax a 1/4 to 1/2 cent. He said a tax on title transfers of homes would have new homes help pay for costs of improvements. Davis said home rule is better than raising property taxes or doing nothing.

Commission postpones decision on police officer

ISLAND LAKE—A continuance was granted to allow suspended Island Lake Police Officer Rena Jensen, 30, and her attorney more time to prepare for a hearing before the Village Police and Fire Commission to determine her status on the force. Robert Hauser, Jensen's attorney, will now have until Sept. 30 to prepare Jensen's defense against charges filed by Island Lake Police Chief Eugene W. Bach.

Geo-Karis wants more safety at bad intersection

LINDENHURST—Recent accidents and deaths at the intersection of Sand Lake Road and Route 45 have prompted State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis to push Illinois Department of Transportation officials to increase safety measures at the intersection. Additional signage has been placed and a intersection ahead sign has been moved forward. The intersection has moved up on the IDOT list for signals.

State legislature passes the school visitation act

by MARY FOLEY

The Illinois State Legislature has passed the School Visitation Rights Act. The act requires employers to grant an employee leave of up to a total of eight hours during any school year to attend school conferences or classroom activities related to an employee's child.

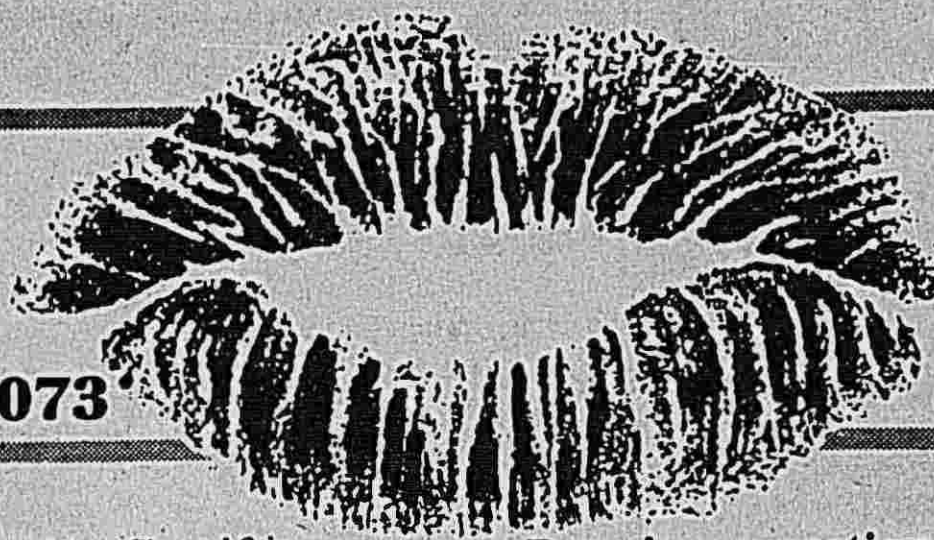

The act was passed in order to foster greater parental involvement in education. Often when two parents are working, they are unable to attend the necessary educational and behavioral conferences at their children's school. The act will

Shoes killing them

If the deputies on the Chain O'Lakes were allowed to wear more comfortable uniforms, there is a chance they might be more pleasant. I am glad that they are there. There are a lot of knuckle heads who do not know how to operate a watercraft safely.

Newspaper supporter

Sorry Mr. Segin, I think that the Lakeland Newspapers did a good job. If anything, they are too easy on politicians. As a business owner in town, I do not think that gambling is the answer. I live in Fox Lake.

Editorial note: Dear readers, we want to remind you that we cannot print customer complaints. Please call the Better Business Bureau for assistance.

People can be cruel

I took about three days to plant flowers all around the walkway at the Round Lake Library. I don't even know if anyone noticed. I have been trying to upgrade this place and make it look a little nicer. Anyway, when I came into work this morning, I found that every single one of the flowers were ripped out of the ground. Several weeks before, I had a large planter that someone picked up and threw onto the lower level. I am just a little ticked and thought I would call.

Editorial note: Dear reader, there is probably nothing more frustrating in life than to go that extra mile to make something beautiful only to have someone senselessly destroy it. Maybe some of the readers in the area can pitch in and try one more time. Stranger things have happened!

Wants a referendum

I have personally lived on the lakes for the past 12 years. I am in them three times a week. Why don't they spend a little money to remove the trees, mark the shallow areas, and clean up the river? Someone should make a video tape of the area and send it to Channel 3 in Waukegan. If they are going to ask for $800,000 it should be on a referendum. The people should decide. Clean it up first before dredging.

Party for the party

Are you upset with the present village board of Round Lake Heights? Buying beer and wine with taxpayers money for their little festival? Another party for the party of the people?

Orientation not issue

I am calling from Grayslake. I think that the caller, Judy had it wrong. I do not think that people are putting Ms. Paddock down for her sexual preference. Instead, she should not have taken advantage of young girls who are impressionable. She should have stuck to people her own age.

Burning questions

Why can a certain person in Lake Villa burn anything he wants to? If the wind is blowing in the right direction, the foul odor of burning garbage blows into the village of Lake Villa. Who does he pay off? I want the number of the Environmental Protection Agency. If you print it I will call!

Editorial note: Dear reader, here is the number of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency: 531-5900. Good luck!

What action?

Note to the owner of a blue sedan, be advised. On Friday Aug. 27, at 3:45 p.m. your reckless vehicle cut off our vehicle on Route 94. This car drove toward Antioch on Route 173 and exited on Grimm Road. If this is your vehicle, take appropriate action.

Richardson to chair 25th anniversary committee

Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson has been selected to serve as chairperson of the College of Lake County's 25th anniversary celebration steering committee. The college will mark its 25th anniversary Sept. 25, 1994.

The celebration will provide a chance to reflect on the impact of the college on individuals and on Lake County, said Richardson. "At the same time, we want to create a greater awareness of the college among all the community residents and let them know that CLC is waiting to serve them. We hope to have a celebration that makes everyone feel welcome," she said.

Richardson's selection to chair the 25th anniversary committee is most fitting as she is one of the founding staff members of the college, said CLC President Daniel J. LaVista. "Barbara is not only a one-time CLC employee, but also a long-time friend of the college. Her association with the college will help to highlight the work of the college in the community for the last 25 years, the success of our faculty and students and the college's contributions to Lake County and its residents," he said.

Richardson started as a CLC staff member in 1968 at the college's original location in an office at St. Theresa Hospital. The college was opened for classes in 1969 in temporary buildings at the present Grayslake location. After eight years of service, Richardson left CLC in 1976 to work in the Lake County coroner's office.

Barbara Richardson

She has continued her affiliation with the college by serving on the CLC Foundation board of directors for the last nine years.

Richardson said that she is working to organize the 25th anniversary steering committee, which will include college staff and members of the community. The committee will meet in mid-August to review anniversary objectives approved by the CLC board of trustees. They include activating the alumni organization, recognizing founding faculty and staff, honoring successful graduates, increasing public awareness of CLC's programs and services and recognizing volunteers. The committee will work for the next several months to complete final preparations.

Grayslake Lions Club sets Sept. 12 for Steer Roast

The Grayslake Lions Club is all ready for its annual steer roast. This year will be the 30th anniversary of the roast which will be held Sept. 12 at Grayslake Community High School, 400 N. Lake St., Grayslake. Meals will be served from noon to 5 p.m.

The meal will include traditional spit roasted roast beef, baked potatoes, corn on the cob, sliced tomatoes, dessert and coffee or milk. Every club member has tickets. Advanced purchase prices are $6.50 for adult and $2.50 for youngsters ages five through 11. Children under five are free. Tickets at the door will cost $7 adult and $4 youngsters. Those who do not know a Lions Club member, may call 223-9123, but be sure to identify yourself and when and where you can be contacted.

Advance tickets are also available at Anchor Bank, Route 45 and Washington Street, Third Lake.

Proceeds from the Steer Roast go back into the community. Among other things, this last year the Grayslake Lions Club paid for a number of eye examinations and glasses for some of the less fortunate neighbors, paid for hearing tests for hearing impaired, sent two youngsters to Camp Lions for blind and deaf children, contributed funds to the Grayslake Area Public Library for the purchase of large print books and continued to support the Grayslake blind bowlers' league.

Membership in a Lions Club is by invitation and a new member is sponsored by a regular member. However, if a man may wish to join but does not know a member to sponsor him, he may contact membership chairman Marv Smith at 223-2324 and arrangements may be made for him to join.

Anchor Bank is donating two pairs of tickets to a Bears game for a raffle. At this point, the dates for the football game have not been determined.

Yates is director for Fighting Back

The Fighting Back project's new director is Carol Yates, who comes to Lake County from Peoria. Yates has worked with prevention partnerships in Peoria and Decatur, where she was associate director.

She takes over the position from Claudia Calhoun, who accepted a position as vice president of the United Way of Lake County.

Yates holds a bachelor of arts degree in public relations from Bradley University. She has continued her education in grant-writing, community partnerships, employee supervision, community wellness, cultural diversity and team building. She has also been active in the Illinois Alcoholism and Drug Dependence Association (IADDA), Mothers Against Drunk Driving; the Illinois Drug Education Alliance (IDEA); and the League of Women Voters. She was a volunteer tutor with Common Place and is a member of the Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels.

New Additions for Fall at Patricia's Amish Furniture!

Patricia's Amish Furniture and Giftware is filled with loads of furniture straight from Amish settlements in the Midwest. Each piece is painstakingly hand-carved by Amish craftsmen and treated for the highest quality. The Amish use no electricity in their everyday lives and use horse and buggy for transportation.

The owners of Patricia's Giftware, Patricia and Bob Hawkins, regularly visit the Amish to pick up custom orders and to get new sample ideas for the store. They've looked all over the Midwest for the finest craftsmen.

They recently acquired two unique items: a corner entertainment center which can be ordered with an optional beveled glass case and a student desk. Other pieces at the store include a beautiful sleigh bed and other solid wood bedroom sets, rocking chairs in many styles (including bent hickory), roll-top desks, and a hand-carved cedar chest. There's also many styles of solid oak tables and chairs plus much more!

FAITH — Amish Country Print by N.A. Noel

Amish pride goes into each unique piece of furniture at Patricia's. Stop in and check out the quality workmanship and "feel" of the Amish furniture. Each piece is solid oak, cherry or hickory, and can be custom-ordered in nine stains to match your home decor.

The life of the Amish is captured in many Amish-look framed prints by Noel, Koenig and Polomchak, all available at Patricia's. You'll also find many smaller craft items, for gifts or for your own home!

Take some time to stop by Patricia's Amish Furniture and Giftware on Lake Street in downtown Antioch. We're a half block west of Route 83, and open 7 days a week, so stop in today!

Downtown plan OK'd

Lakeland Newspapers

The Antioch Village Board has approved the Downtown Comprehensive Plan. This final plan was a modification of the currently approved plan. The original plan was approved by the Antioch Village Board in December of 1991.

The new plan incorporates the many suggestions from the downtown market study with the original plan. The biggest change concerned whether or not the area around the proposed train station should be industrial or residential.

Along with the suggested use restriction changes, a new streetscape plan is included. This plan includes the reduction in width of Route 83 in order to widen sidewalks along Main Street, an information booth, and, eventually a commons area.

The streetscape plan seeks to eliminate window air conditioners, flashing signs, and false facades of the buildings. The plan encourages downtown property owners to restore many of the older buildings to their original appearance.

Included in the plans are alternative locations for the post office, renovation of the buildings on the rear east side of Main Street, and the creation of a town square as a focal point.

Build Gambling plan may see revival

by BILL SCHROEDER
Lakeland Newspapers

If a riverboat casino can't be located at Antioch, officials of Fox Lake are ready to make an intensive pitch for water-borne gambling somewhere in their village where the Fox River widens into the Chain O'Lakes.

While debate over a casino proposal for river-front property in the township ripped Antioch into two enemy camps, the plan offered by a group of investors was almost universally supported in Fox Lake.

"You can't say Fox Lake isn't interested," exclaimed Village Trustee James "Jim" Segin at a meeting of the Fox Lake Economic Development Commission.

Segin, who also is a member of the advisory body, said he hoped the commission would support a "new effort" to bring casino gambling to the Fox Lake area.

That depends, Chairman Ken Birchard pointed out, on two things:

1. Whether the Illinois General Assembly approves more licenses.
2. A more liberal interpretation of the current law limited floating casinos to navigable rivers.

Fox Lake Mayor Kenneth Hamsher remarked that he hopes state lawmakers will allow more riverboat gambling licenses.

Fox Lake was ready to voice solid support at a hearing of the Illinois Gaming Commission on the Antioch proposal, but Hamsher bemoaned the fact that he was limited to a presentation of only 30 seconds.

"Thirty seconds. I couldn't believe that. The mayor of Elgin had over an hour," Hamsher noted at a regular meeting of the economic commission. "But I'm not licking our wounds. I think the commissioners did an honest job," Hamsher added, lauding the "charismatic" presentation made by the Elgin mayor.

Wetland concerns delay powerlines

Lakeland Newspapers

Commonwealth Edison's proposed 138 Kilovolt transmission wire faces environmental hurdles from the Army Corp's of Engineers. According to the corp, a preliminary evaluation of the project's application indicates that the discharge of fill material into the wetlands may not be in compliance with guidelines.

Edison, in order to proceed with the application is required to present a list of the names and addresses of all adjoining and potentially affected property owners. In addition, Edison is being requested to submit some alternative placements.

"Our concerns are the wetlands," said Carol Massar, chief public affairs officer of the corps. According to the corps, non-compliance with the Environmental Protection Agency Guidelines could be grounds for denial of a permit.

Part of the proposed line would be placed along Soo Line Railroad between Route 173 in Antioch and Rollins Road in Round Lake Beach. Edison would have to fill in some of the marshy land in order to have access to the line.

Jim Pierce, representative of Citizens Against Unsafe Electricity (CAUSE) feels the corps action is heartening. The group feels that the action of the corp is unusual in that they do not regularly recommend evaluation of alternate sites.

"That is pretty serious," said Pierce. "The wetlands are full of migratory birds and Edison will have to build roads just to get down there."

Chain boating collision injures three passengers

by TINA SWIECH
Lakeland Newspapers

Results of a boating accident on the Chain O' Lakes over the Labor Day holiday, included sending three people to the hospital with injuries, after two boats collided.

The Point Comfort area of the water in between Fox Lake and Nippersink Lake, is where, according to reports, a 32-foot Sea Ray operated by David Hoeh of 42878 N. Jeanette, Antioch, ran into the side of a 16-foot Celebrity boat manned by David Ferrell of 38515 Forest, Spring Grove.

According to the Lake County Sheriff's Marine Unit, on Sept. 6 at approximately 5:30 p.m., Hoeh was driving the boat southbound coming out of a no-wake zone and did not see the other boat until contact was already made.

Fox Lake police were contacted by the marine unit who assisted one of the boaters, Susan Strub, 44, of Elmwood, Mundelein.

According to Sgt. James Bryant of the marine unit, Strub was rescued by the LCSO Marine Unit when they arrived on the scene and found her in the water after the accident.

Strub, along with the other passengers in the 16-footer were taken to the Northern Illinois Medical Center in McHenry by Fox Lake rescue personnel.

Injured was 11-year old Erin Strub, and her mother Susan of 0260 Elmwood, Mundelein; and the driver of the smaller craft, Ferrell. Erin complained to rescue workers of stomach pain and problems breathing. Ferrell, according to reports, had a bleeding head wound, and Susan Strub had a gash on her left arm that was bleeding, marine unit officials said.

Two of the three taken to the hospital were still in admittance at the medical center as of Tuesday, according to reports. One of the passengers in Ferrell's boat, Cari Strub, age 10, was not injured, reports stated.

Sheriffs said that neither boat was cited for violations.

Richardson to chair 25th anniversary committee

Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson has been selected to serve as chairperson of the College of Lake County's 25th anniversary celebration steering committee. The college will mark its 25th anniversary Sept. 25, 1994.

The celebration will provide a chance to reflect on the impact of the college on individuals and on Lake County, said Richardson. "At the same time, we want to create a greater awareness of the college among all the community residents and let them know that CLC is waiting to serve them. We hope to have a celebration that makes everyone feel welcome," she said.

Richardson's selection to chair the 25th anniversary committee is most fitting as she is one of the founding staff members of the college, said CLC President Daniel J. LaVista. ## Letter to the Editor

Running alone

Editor:

I am one of several candidates running for a seat on the Grass Lake School Board.

As such, I would first like to clear up a few misconceptions. To begin with, I have heard that I am running on someone's "ticket" or that candidates are running on my "ticket." This is not true. I am running as an independent.

Secondly, in spite of my having friends and acquaintances on the board, I am not nor have I ever been joined at the hip with anyone. I think most of the community has seen that I make my own decisions.

I have not been happy with many things that have taken place at GLS in the past few years. However, lately I seem to be seeing things beginning to move towards a more positive and more productive atmosphere. I'm not only seeing this in regard to the school, but the community also.

I sincerely hope that as candidates we can all do what we must to keep things flowing in this direction. I know each of us is running for a board position for our own reasons. We all want to see that the children in this district are educated to the best of our abilities and at the same time keep spending to a minimal.

We all want to provide a healthy atmosphere for our children. So please, let us all keep these things in mind while running our campaigns. And please, remember, we are all neighbors.

Granny Story

Since it has been about twenty minutes since I shared a "Granny Story" with my readers, I decided to save you all from granny story withdrawal as I relate this next tidbit. I want everyone to know that being a granny definitely has its pitfalls, along with its many rewards. In my opinion, grandparenthood is a second chance to do things different and hopefully better than we did with our own children.

When my four children were little, I tended to be strict and set in my ways (actually this is an understatement). My intention with our little Alyssa and future grandbabies is to be very permissive and let the little ones do anything they want, within reason. It certainly did not take Alyssa long to figure out that she has the ability to wrap granny around her little finger.

When we gather as a family and mom and dad issue a negative directive, she comes to "MeeMee" (granny) and tries to get me on her side. My soft heart wants to say yes, sweetie pie and you can do this or that. However, my common sense kicks in and I find myself asking "What did mommy or daddy say?" She gives me her all knowing look that says "granny may be a softie, but she is not totally stupid." Not yet, that is.

Victory wants to build outpatient care center

Lakeland Newspapers

Victory Care Center is proposing an Ambulatory Surgery Center to provide outpatient surgery on the Victory Lakes property off Grand Avenue and Deep Lake Road.

The Victory Ambulatory Care Center would be a 11,800 square foot building on a three-acre parcel and cost of around $2.5 million. Victory needs approval by the Illinois Health Facilities Planning Board for a certificate of need (con) on Sept. 8 to begin the project.

The need for such a facility was echoed by the Lindenhurst Mayor Paul Baumunk and from Victory officials.

"There is a lot of growth in the western part of Lake County and no hospital in the area," said Linda Lampinen of Victory Health Services. "It is something the area and the community is lacking."

"On behalf of the $8,500 residents of the village of Lindenhurst and the concern for the surrounding population approaching 30,000, I wish to stress the need for the proposed Victory Ambulatory Surgery Center," Baumunk said in a letter to George Stevens, of the Illinois Health Board.

"The closest surgical provider to Lindenhurst is located 32 miles away and the nine surgical providers in Lake County are on average, located 19 miles away. The average travel time from Lindenhurst to these nine providers is 43 minutes," the letter said.

Baumunk stressed the facility would increase the access to health care while reducing the cost to northwest Lake County residents by 25 to 30 percent.

Lampinen said the facility will be used for outpatient surgery. Some of the surgeries would be eye, some orthopedic, gynecological and other routine general surgical procedures. She said the facilities and services provided would be similar to outpatient surgeries done in local hospitals in the area.

"The patients will come in for on average a two-hour surgery, recover and go home. Usually after a couple of hours they are sent home with instructions," Lampinen said.

If the state approves the facility, all that will be needed is for Victory to go through the plan review process. Lindenhurst already anticipated this type of service when it annexed the land, according to Village Administrator James Stevens.

If Victory gets state approval, it plans on having a spring ground breaking in 1994 and opening in 1995.

Antioch salary increases despite budgetary woes

Lakeland Newspapers

The Antioch Community High School Board has ratified a contract that increased salaries of teachers 2.53 percent despite receiving a financial warning letter from the Illinois Board of Education.

In a compromise bargaining agreement, teachers have agreed to pay a portion of the increased costs of medical insurance in exchange for salary increases.

Antioch high school teachers are in the last year of a three-year contract. However, the language of the agreement permitted the reopening on a yearly basis in order to negotiate salary and insurance related issues.

The school board ratified the contract after the board's negotiation committee and the teachers union had reached a contract settlement. Both sides had reportedly been in negotiations since early July.

Currently the school is facing debt of over $2 million in its education fund. To compound the school's financial problems, the local watchdog group, Better Education Sensible Taxes (BEST), has made a number of allegations.

In a letter dated Dec. 24, 1992 to the Illinois Superintendent of Schools, BEST contended that District 117 had attempted to conceal its poor financial condition by shuttling money from one fund to another.

Dr. Schley, superintendent of District 117 explained there was no substance to those allegations. According to Schley, he received a letter concerning that matter from the state clearing Antioch from any such charges.

Crash sends five to hospital

A Carol Stream resident faces charges of driving under the influence of alcohol and other offenses following a two-car crash at Rtes. 132 and 41 Saturday.

Rodney C. Manning, of Carol Stream, was charged with: DUI, reckless driving, failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident, disobeying a traffic signal and driving an uninsured motor vehicle.

The accident took place at 10:20 p.m.

Transported to St. Therese Medical Center were: Christy O'Dette of Waukegan; Rich Conley, 28, of Waukegan; Detra Glogovsky, age 27, of Waukegan.

Curt Wagner, age 19, of Antioch, had to be extricated from O'Dette's 1988 Ford Mustang, Gurnee Fire Chief Tim McGrath said.

Schools should be run as business says Leone

Lakeland Newspapers

John Leone, candidate for school board in District 117, has a dual background that is a combination of both education and business. Leone has a B.A. in music education and has also been in private business.

Leone, a seven year resident of the area, currently has two children attending schools in District 34, which feeds into District 117. He feels that decisions made today will affect his own children as they advance.

"We need to get the money situation at the school taken care of first," explains Leone. "I would like to seek alternative financing for the schools."

According to Leone, the job of the school board is to solely help the students. Yet, he also appreciates the need to operate the school in a more efficient manner.

"The school district needs to be run as a business with the end product being students," said Leone. "There has to be a lot of changes in the administration of education."

Leone made the decision to run for a seat on the school board after he started to substitute teach at the high school.

John Leone

"I saw a great need for change," explained Leone. "I could see concerns of students by the questions they asked me. That's what drew me in."

Currently, Leone works as a substitute teacher in both Districts 117 and 34, which may give him an edge in dealing with both the educational and financial problems facing the high school today. He and his family reside in the Loon Lake area.

Schools need to look long term according to Smalley

by MARY FOLEY
Lakeland Newspapers

Lance Smalley, candidate for the Antioch Community High School board believes that the school needs to look more towards the long term future.

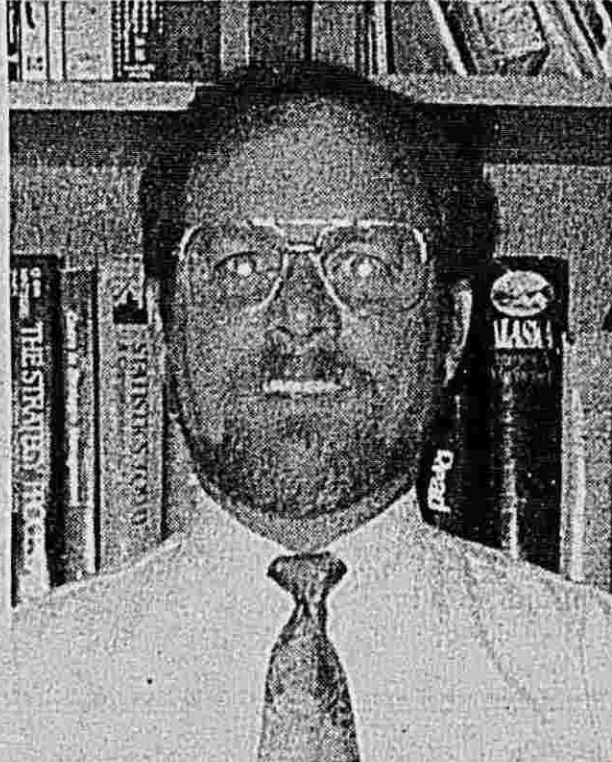

Smalley, a self employed manufacturing and management consultant has a bachelors of science degree in occupational education and an M.B.A. from Lake Forest. A long time resident of the area, Smalley has lived in District 117 for 15 years.

Smalley has two children currently attending ACHS as a sophomore and a junior. The family recently moved from their home in Lake Villa to a house bordering Centennial Park in Antioch.

Smalley hopes to be the moderate voice on the board. He admits he voted against the referendum last April, but believes he would change his vote if the school board was better able to demonstrate a need for the tax increase.

"The biggest problem is looking long term," said Smalley. "We must find new ways to fund education."

Smalley's short term goal, if elected would be to solve the financing problems now facing the school. Financing, however, is not Smalley's only concern.

Lance Smalley

While reviewing the ACHS citizens' advisory council report, he quickly noted that little was said concerning the quality of education. He said he was disappointed that the study failed to compile or discuss how Antioch High School students were actually doing.

Board needs balance: Olin

Lakeland Newspapers

John Olin, candidate for a seat on the District 117's school board feels the board needs to strike a balance between the educational needs of the students and financial requirements to achieve those ends.

Olin has been a resident of Lindenhurst for over 18 years and has had a son graduate from Antioch Community High School. He has a bachelor of science in accounting, M.B.A. coursework, and has worked as a management accountant. Olin was employed for 26 years in the treasury division of Abbot Laboratories.

Olin believes that his background in finance sets him apart from other candidates.

"I do not think we have come up with the right proposal," explains Olin. "I do not know that our district is well managed."

Another problem Olin identifies is the failure of the board to get the message out to the voters about the district's financial position.

John Olin

"I do not think the prior board has adequately explained the situation," said Olin. "The kids need these resources."

Olin is deeply interested in the success of local schools. He feels he has both the time and the experience to tackle Antioch's problems head on.

you must make it zero tolerance," said Quinn. At a recent gang gathering in Zion's Illinois State Beach Park, gang members were allowed to congregate without obtaining a permit. According to Quinn, this gives gangs a false sense of power.

He explained that sporadic enforcement leads gangs to feel as though they might be able to get away with criminal behavior. Gang members have reported to Quinn that sometimes they are arrested for something yet at other times they are not arrested.

"We will never completely eliminate gangs," predicted Quinn. "But, we can eliminate the behavior."

The group meets every month alternating between each of the four towns. The next meeting is planned for Thursday, Oct. 7 at 151 Hawley Street, in Grayslake. Everyone is invited to attend. Anyone interested in volunteering or wishing more information should call Donna at 356-7711.

class sizes in Lake County."

A $.27 increase in the education fund will be used to provide ample number of teachers in order to keep class size down, buy updated equipment, eliminate the deficit, provide for the influx of new students, and provide for an adequate extra-curricular program.

Probably, the bottom line for taxpayers is the question of cost. The projected costs to taxpayers would be an annual cost of $80.55 for homeowners with a home valued at $100,000. Homes with fair market values of $150,000 would be faced with an annual cost of $125 and $200,000 homes would generate a cost of $180 a year.

The area has declined to pass a number of tax increases for the school. It is hoped that this referendum, which does not even address any building issues will be approved by the voters.

Officer Foerster honored

Lakeland Newspapers

Officer James Foerster received official recognition from the Antioch Village Board for not only his super sleuthing but his professional manner in handling the suspects. Foerster apprehended two burglary suspects after they broke into over 50 vehicles in a single evening.

In a letter from Senior Vice President, Louis Korom III of First National Bank of Antioch, Foerster is lauded, not only for his professional detective work, but his demeanor while arresting the suspects.

"To catch these burglars certainly showed professional detective work," said Korom. "But, I was even more impressed with the manner in which the suspects were handled."

"I believe," Korom continued, "it was his manner which convinced the two to change their initial story of complete innocence to admission of guilt. At all times he retained a professional demeanor without a trace of abuse."

Foerster made the arrest after he had responded to a call from a resident complaining that unknown persons had broken into a parked car stealing a radar detector and approximately $400 in quarters and loose change kept in a bucket in the back seat.

While taking the report, Foerster noticed that the alleged thieves used a large rock to break into the car. When Foerster returned to the station he called all four local banks, grocery stores, and the currency exchange to alert them of the possibility that the criminals may attempt to convert the quarters into paper currency.

Two youths were arrested when they tried to convert the change at the First National Bank of Antioch.

Science Alliance gets donations

Due to the great success of the Antioch Community High School Science Alliance Program, the program has been awarded double the amount of funding for the 1993-94 school year, in comparison to last year.

The program, under the guidance of chemistry teacher, Sharon Peterson, received the financial support of PPG Industries of Gurnee and Info Trac of Fox Lake. A mini-grant was also awarded by the ChemWest organization, a group comprised of chemistry instructors from the Northern and Western Chicago suburbs that helps support innovative science endeavors.

Science Alliance is a "teacher-mentor" program in which high school students share their knowledge of science with younger students. "It's a way of making learning fun for everyone," says Peterson.

This academic year, the program will involve seventy five school honor students along with several hundred students in grades fourth through eighth.

LIPSERVICE

IT'S THE TALK OF THE TOWN

Lakeland
Newspapers

No burden, please

This message is from Wauconda. There is a new referendum made by the school district. Wauconda does not want to pay for the influx of people from Island Lake. They should be a new district! We are carrying the burden of Island Lake and McHenry. Our schools should be for Wauconda residents only.

Great teenagers

I live in Round Lake Park. I went to the picnic there. Afterwards, the teenagers picked up. In Round Lake Park we have the greatest teenagers.

Happy winners

Just a word of thanks to ARC. We won! Thank you too Judy Martini. We do not need riverboats in Antioch.

Stop fighting

The two trustees of Round Lake Heights who are mad at the mayor did not have any experience to become chairpersons. They did, however, have experience in fighting. They should stop fighting.

Let'em eat II

I think that the person who complained about the officers at the Kentucky Fried Chicken buffet should consider the fact that policemen do need to eat sometimes. Unless you never eat lunch, get off their backs. They do one hell of a job for our community.

Not impressed

I am from Round Lake. I was watching TCI's coverage of the village meeting. I can't believe they let Mayor Davis into office. He looked bored. And Jablonski was yawning and laughing. What kind of example is that? They both looked like idiots.

Open up your wallets

Congratulations to all the bible beltters, bingo hoppers, pulpit pounders, and ARC. Now that all the brainwashed anti-casino folks have won, you people that were stupid enough to put your names on the lists against the boats step forward to get your award. First place for all those registered antis: A rate increase on your real estate taxes. You and you alone should kick in for a new school, water way work, and any other programs that would have been supported by the boat. Think before you open your dumb mouth to impress your peers. I am from Antioch.

Just fashion

I wonder about the fashion of having baggy shorts that come down to your ankles. I don't know what the deal is. Did they come from planet mars? Nobody looks very good. What happened to old fashioned jeans and a tee shirt?

Wants more

I am from Antioch. I think it stinks that the Antioch News Reporter couldn't do a better job covering the filming of Lance the dog. I think that Antioch should be proud of their fire department. They are a bunch of good guys. I think it really stinks there was not better coverage on it.

Editorial note: Dear reader, sorry you did not think the coverage was adequate. There were several stories printed in the newspaper prior to the filming plus a photo on page 4 of last weeks issue.

Expensive ticket

If anyone wondered what they missed by not attending the Holiday Park Festival, in one word: nothing. I asked what we would get for our $8 admission charge and was told about everything including carnival rides that were cheap. The rides, games, food, and snacks were expensive although the vendors were wonderful. The band was good but unless you spoke Spanish, nothing was understood. We killed over two hours waiting for the bingo games to begin but they never did. The admission price and poor road signs contributed to an event Lakeland Publishing and Holiday Park should be ashamed of. I am from Lake Villa.

More assessment blues

I am calling from Antioch. What is wrong with the tax assessments here? Flood land was increased. It went up 60 percent.

Agrees with teens

I am calling from Waukegan. The reduced visibility during rainy and stormy weather is the reason headlights are required. Many other states also have this law. Another thing, Grayslake has a long history of rousting teenagers. That's why I don't live there anymore.

Can't transfer money

This is in response to "he's mad." You must understand that you cannot transfer money from the educational fund to the operational management fund. Exercise your right to vote in November. We need a safe environment for our kids in Round Lake Beach.

Watch your kids

I am a resident of Quail Creek in Grayslake. Thank heavens for the neighborhood watch. I hated the tires slashed, broken windows, and stolen items. If people would just bring in their damn kids after curfew we would not have to have this neighborhood watch.

Only a fool

Only fools ride around without a helmet, just like only fools drive around with their windshield wipers on and their headlights off. Use your common sense! If the weather is bad enough to require windshield wipers, it is bad enough for headlights.

Editorial note: Dear readers, thank you for the huge response this week! We received a number of calls concerning the purpose of the wiper/headlight law and were unable to print them all. Since the content was very similar we will not be reprinting them in the future.

Ignored the public

I find it hard to believe that elected officials think so little of public opinion. Both the referendum last spring and the informal telephone survey this summer showed that the majority was opposed to the riverboat. Yet, politicians still chose to ignore. I object to the opinion of the village board that the referendum would have turned out differently if the monetary offer had been available in the spring.

Year-around schools

A 12-month operation offers public education opportunity to become more efficient, productive.

Out of frustration over repeated voter rejection of tax increase referenda may come a local version of one of the grand ideas in recent years for public education--the year-around school.

Wauconda school officials are serious about creating a year-around school as a viable option if voters reject bonding plans for construction of a new elementary school. If approved, a $6.6 million school will be built on 12 acres in the Fox River Shores subdivision of Island Lake and the idea for 12 months operation will remain pretty much a theory.

Whatever happens at the polls Nov. 2 in Wauconda, the year-around school is an intriguing response to critics of modern education who see public schools as monuments to waste, ineptitude and captives of hide-bound tradition.

As the alternative is described by Supt. H. Darrell Dick, the Wauconda option might involve 45 days of attendance, followed by 15 days off. By staggering enrollment segments, an estimated 80 percent of the students would be in school at one time. Increased utilization of facilities is obvious.

One of the nagging problems of today's public education system is blind devotion to tradition and instruction systems that boil down to make work. American history is replete with examples of resistance to change. Railroads almost disappeared because of old ways of doing things and featherbedding. Urban journalism was altered forever because of hot metal constraints and union refusal to modernize newspaper production methods. Look how the U.S. auto building industry has been struggling with antiquated ways. Discounting overhauled American retailing. There remains a costly shelter gap in the U.S. partly because of adherence to old-fashioned home construction methods. Where would our health care delivery system be today if it was forced to shoulder similar burdens? Doctors still would be using ether and leeches.

Even as evidence points more and more to the needs for returning to the teaching of time-honored subject matter, public education can reinvent itself by changing the ways it does business. Operating year-around certainly is one way of getting in tune with the times.

Marsh connects with woes of our over-development

by SUZI SCHMIDT

As I drove around Lake County recently, I was amazed at the congested roads, monotony of the developments and the very noticeable loss of our natural landscape.

I also find it amazing that so many public officials and residents still do not connect over development with flooding, poor air quality, overcrowded schools and rising taxes.

The Lake County Forest Preserve District will be voting to drop the Fairfield Marsh in Round Lake Heights and portions of Lake Villa Township from its list of land to buy.

The Forest Preserve Board has no choice. The Village of Round Lake Heights has voted not to allow the purchase. Trustee Joan Hendricks is the only board member that supports the preservation of this marsh with 11 endangered species of birds, numerous aquatic plants and a natural wetland that stores millions of gallons of storm water.

After the recent flooding in the Round Lake area, I would think it would be the board's first priority to save some natural flood storage areas.

If you want to preserve this land, please contact the Round Lake Heights Village Board and let them know of your concerns.

Commentary

It is everyone's job to preserve our county. Let your voice be heard!

County exodus possible

Editor:

It is disheartening and dismay to me that, after twenty years of attempting to escape from urban sprawl in Lake County and finally finding and buying a home that includes peaceful and tranquil surrounding areas, I find that once again money hungry bureaucrats are trying to pull the rug out from under me by allowing 674 acres of forest preserve land in the Des Plaines River Corridor to be annexed to industrially expansion-minded Vernon Hills, thereby allowing W.W. Grainger Co., though uninvited, to play in my back yard.

Lake County Board Chairman Robert Depke seems to think that he can rule by divine right on this issue and that he, and only he, knows what is best not only for the district but for all the citizens of Lake County.

The wishes of the majority of the residents who value peace and tranquillity must be heard. If they are ignored, Lake County just may be faced with a mass exodus by residents into another county, perhaps even another state, where they are not confronted with mile after mile of industrial complexes, horrendous traffic congestion, noise and air pollution and the desecration of natural beauty. Such an exodus would of course result in a lowering of property values (sure to happen anyway if W.W. Grainger gets in) and finally, decreased tax revenues from residential properties.

Let the people decide

Editor:

About certain business people blaming your paper for the loss of riverboat gambling, it seems that the 61% vote against riverboat gambling made no difference to our township board, especially the supervisor.

Township board members forget they are employees of the people.

Their crass disregard for the majority leaves little to reckon with. The change has to be made when they appear for reelection.

My real concern is that the Antioch News-Reporter be more forceful in publishing the facts good or bad, and let the people decide.

Stanley Petrosius
Antioch

Failed to consider vote

Editor:

It's appalling that Jim Segin can make a statement that Lakeland Newspapers is responsible for the defeat of riverboat casinos. Maybe he didn't read or see the vote. If he is representing businessmen of Antioch and Fox Lake, then I think of trading elsewhere. What are Segin's business ads so I don't make the mistake of trading there? A two-way street, right?

About creating more gambling licenses, I like to gamble, but I don't want gambling here. I don't want to teach kids about gambling or (deal with) what gambling might bring in.

Diehards take note; all the fun on South Side

by BILL SCHROEDER

When you get down to it, so many local baseball fans deprive themselves of a lot of fun, excitement and pleasure in their slavish allegiance to the Cubs, call it tradition, misplaced birthright or plain stupidity.

What's been going on this year is a good example. While their beloved Cubbies are plumbing around in another season of typical Northside mediocrity, a lot of beautiful baseball things have been happening south of the Loop.

At the Labor Day benchmark, the White Sox still were comfortably lodged in first place in the American West with bright prospects of carrying off a division flag. No snide remarks about the weakest division in the majors. First place is first place.

The 1993 White Sox are no fluke. They've got World Series talent. A thumper of Hall of Fame proportions, Frank Thomas. The best pitcher in the majors (look it up), Black Jack McDowell. A super speedster with super power ala Mickey Mantle or Willie Mays, Tim Lincecum. Who would ask for anything more on one team?

Let's dispense with the nonsense about lack of color and personality on the '93 Sox. Do Ryne Sandberg and Jim Lefebvre have the qualities to light up a late night show? At least half a dozen second basemen in the National League are the equal of baseball's highest paid player (eat your heart out, Chicago Trib bean counters). The taciturn Cubs manager is invisible even when he's the only guy on the beach. So much for Cub color and personality.

About tradition and birthright. By those measures, folks living north of Lake-Cook Rd. should be solid Sox supporters. More Lake County residents have played for the South Siders than the Cubs. Urban "Red" Faber, the old White Sox spit-baller, owned and operated the Grayslake bowling alley. Waukegan's Johnny Dickshot patrolled the Comiskey outfield during the war years. Another World War II White Sox was Guy Curtright, who later coached and taught at North Chicago High. More recently, Buffalo Grove's Marv Staehle caught for the Sox. Talk about local identity. The Cubs offer only the Zion milk man, "Ooom" Paul Erickson.

Let loose, diehards. You deserve a winner. There's a big one a few miles south of Clark and Addison. And it's getting bigger.

Mettawa mystery letter labeled phony by Marks

County Board Rep. Martha A. Marks, Riverwoods, is making the most out of her search for one "Bruce Colinauer" of Vernon Hills.

Party Lines

attached to a letter blasting the residents of Mettawa for daring to try and preserve the residential character of their village is a phony.

"If you are brave enough to come out from behind your pseudonym and reveal your true identity, I would like to speak with you," fumed Marks, a freshman representative.

Suburbanites first---To hear Lauren Beth Gash, the Democratic state representative from Highland Park tell it, newly elected state representatives from the Chicago suburbs are suburbanites first and party members second. We're not so sure about that. It's just good politics for suburban Democrats (there are a few) to vote with suburban interests that override party dictates. According to Gash, it was a coalition that abolished the "granny tax" and got more money for education. Maybe so, but Lauren is the only one Party Lines knows about who is talking about a coalition.

*****

Sunday forum---Congressman John Porter (R-10th, Ill.) will hold the sixth of his 1993 public forums from 1 to 3 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 12, at Highland Park City Hall, 1707 St. Johns Ave. If you've got a gripe about government to air or are just interested, you're invited to attend.

*****

National nod---Lake County Board Chairman Bob Depke is one of three new vice-chairmen of the National Assn. of Counties' (NACO) transportation steering committee. Depke has been active in the influential organization for a number of years. NACO has 13 steering committees for form the policy making arm of the association.

Bulging phone booth---Democrats aren't apologizing about their Lake County numbers and enthusiasm after a rousing golf outing/fund raising dinner described by County Chairman Terry Link as "the biggest in Lake County since Watergate."

About 150 golfers turned out at Foss Park, North Chicago, and double that number enjoyed dinner afterwards at Basil's on Green Bay Rd. All the fun and excitement prompted Link to exude: "They're going to need a bigger phone booth for us in the future." Link's reference was to a nameless Republican's charge that Lake County Democrats could hold a rally in a phone booth.

Diners got a big kick out of Link's poster proclaiming a possible primary slogan for the 1994 campaign: "It's the Republicans, stupid!" With at least four Democrats jockeying for position as governor, party leaders fear a wave of self-destruction engulfing the party in the '94 general election.

Serious candidate---All of a sudden, Ed Sindles of Mundelein, is getting more than a second glance in his challenge of Sheriff Clinton Grinnell in the Republican primary next spring. No more trial balloons. Sindles is doing fund raisers and he's turning up at neighborhood meetings. Invited, of course. Sindles reportedly is basing his campaign on discontent in the ranks of deputies and the fact that Grinnell took too long deciding whether he'd be a candidate for reelection. The unusual thing about the Sindles candidacy is the Clint is Ed's boss.

First major fund raiser for Sindles will be Tuesday, Sept. 28, at Fox Lake where the doors at Maravella's will be opened at 6 p.m. for Citizens to Elect Ed Sindles. A $25 per person ticket includes food and entertainment.

Marks

Depke

Tickets are being handled by Frank Lennan of Park City, a former deputy and past president of the sheriff's unit of Fraternal Order of Police, and Molli Larson of Round Lake, co-chair of Citizens to Elect Sindles.

attempt to conceal the fact that the board currently is a "rubber stamp" governing body.

After reviewing the minutes from board meetings from July 20, 1992, to June 28, 1993, I found that 264 issues had been resolved and there were 1,702 aye votes and 25 nay votes with three abstentions.

This means that the school board agrees 98.4% of the time. Apparently, Mrs. Hoth is correct. The entire Dist. 50 board does agree with her. My question is, when was the last time you found seven individuals who could agree 98.4% of the time over an 11-month period?

The board's complete agreement philosophy is further illustrated by a comment Alan Mann (Dist. 50 board member) made prior to the August 30, 1992, board meeting. Mr. Mann stated, "Don't worry about the lights going off, we can do this in the dark." My suggestion is that since the entire school board agrees on most of the issues, we should turn the lights off during future school board meetings and use the electric bill savings to help play for the school district's current budget deficit.

Absurd mandates hurt school funding

by MICHAEL LESCHER

Two published articles caught my attention as a parent of school age children.

The first described a letter from the State of Illinois to several Lake County school boards (including Fox Lake's Dist. 114) warning them that certain patterns of shifting money from one fund to another within their budget and short term borrowing were frowned on by the state and continuing such practices could lead to these districts being placed on the "watch list."

What the article did not go into detail about was the fact that the state forces school boards to engage in less than desirable fiscal maneuvers by mandating programs and standards for the schools without supplying the necessary funds, or sending the funds at the end of the school year even though the bills must be paid throughout the year.

If the taxpaying parents of this state knew the absurdities of Illinois' method of funding education they would react with shock or disbelief.

The second article described the positions of several of the state legislators of Lake County, including Bill Peterson, Al Salvi and Verna Clayton, all of whom agreed that this system is due for a major overhaul.

I have worked with these and other state legislators from our area on various issues and believe that they have their constituents' best interests at heart but are hampered by the political forces at work in this complex issue.

While the day to day activities of the school board are important, the long-range problems can only be resolved by major changes at the state level. Other states are beginning to move in that direction with the players compromising their political agendas for the good of the children.

I suffer from no delusion that this task will be easy. I pledge to make this my first priority if elected to the school board. I ask only that the people of Fox Lake back the efforts of their elected representatives and make their voices heard in Springfield. Only then can we expect to see a solution emerge.

Editors note: Michael Lescher is a candidate for school board, Dist. 114, Fox Lake.

Free Prostate Cancer Screenings

Saint Therese Medical Center is supporting National Prostate Cancer Awareness Week by offering free prostate cancer screenings on Monday, September 20, from 6 to 9 p.m.

Prostate cancer is the most common cancer among men and the second leading cause of cancer death. It strikes one in eleven men in their lifetime, and will claim 35,000 lives this year alone.

Prostate cancer can however be cured when detected early, and it can often be effectively treated even during its advanced stages.

The American Cancer Society recommends regular screenings for men who are over 50, African American, or over 40 with a family history of prostate cancer.

Because there are many other forms of cancer to be concerned with, you'll also receive a free comprehensive cancer screening. This computer graded questionnaire assesses your cancer risk, and if needed, includes a personal consultation with a Saint Therese professional.

Appointments for your screening are not required. For more information, call ASK-A-NURSE® at 244-5900.

Toshiba announces staff promotions

BUFFALO GROVE—Toshiba America Consumer Products Inc. promoted several staff members of its Video Communications and Informations Systems Division, headquartered in Buffalo Grove. Ichiro Hasegawa, a 24-year veteran of Toshiba, was named senior vice-president for the division. Howard Konaka, a 16-year employee, was named director of business planning and merchandising. Other promoted were Chris Walczak to national sales manager, Mike Skryha as the assistant manager, sales support for the closed circuit TV group, and Yezette Paulis to supervisor of the import/export operations.

Dental practice celebrates 25 years

NORTH CHICAGO—Dr. Ronald M. Stanczak, in a partnership with Dr. John E. Schulien on Green Bay Road in North Chicago, celebrated his 25th year in practice this week. The North Chicago practice serves patients from around the north shore and eastern Lake County.

MedTake system adds more hospitals

DEERFIELD—MedTake, a bedside documentation service distributed by Baxter Healthcare Corp., has added three more hospitals to its network of 45 across the nation. The hospitals plan to use the systems advanced technology to interface with departments such as radiology, reducing in a decrease of nursing time spent on documentation.

Ford Motor sales increase in region

GRAYSLAKE—Ford Motor Co. officials announced that July new car and truck sales surged 23 percent ahead of last year's totals in the region. Jim Gwaltney, manager of the regional office in Chicago, said the best proof of an economy recovery is the numbers of new car and truck sales. July sales totaled nearly nine thousand units throughout the region.

Interactive Network offers ability to 'play' television

Armed-chair quarterbacks have for decades yelled "I can call the play better" or, "the coach should have done this or that."

Now, arm-chair quarterbacks have a tool at their left or right arms ready to prove

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

they know at least as much as the coach of the last-place team. Or player on a game show. Or mystery writer.

The device is called the Interactive Network, Inc. "Don't Just Watch TV, Play TV" is the slogan.

"This is insensitive to the number of users. It is capable of reaching all TV sets," Troy P. Winslow, area sales manager, said.

Chicago media received an introduction to the hand-held device before playing against the San Francisco media Sept. 15 to match wits in a baseball game.

"It is a new, dynamic relationship with television," David Lockton, chief executive officer of the firm, said.

In the football game, one predicts run or pass or to which direction as an actual game is shown.

In shows such as Jeopardy, the question is given in multiple choice.

"In Murder, She Wrote," the object is to solve the murder before Jessica Landsbury (the host)," Winslow said.

Players may try to outguess the program for points, or select an option which will pit them against the entire network of subscribers. Cost of the unit is $299 for six months of service for 20 hours of programming.

"We market it as a family entertainment system," Winslow said. "We are constantly updating the programs. We are constantly updating the programs. We just added hockey and boxing."

In addition to offering Chicago subscribers the 100-plus interactive television and stand-alone programs currently available in northern California, IN will make all televised Chicago professional sporting events and college games fully interactive.

IN will have a production facility at 303 E. Wacker Dr., Chicago. The data will be broadcast to homes via the unused portion of the FM station radio bands, as well as an unseen signal on WTTW.

Anita Corona of Interactive Network's public relations department said there is an educational aspect as well. Classes in Cincinnati used the programming to help prepare students for the SAT test.

The device was manufactured in Mountain View, Calif. and test marketed in the Sacramento area, the San Francisco. Less than one-tenth of a percent of the market has Interactive TV. The national "roll-out" is expected in 1994.

"In our northern Californian markets, our interactive entertainment programming has been purchased for homes at a faster rate than cable television, pay TV, the VCR and the CD in their first two years," Lockman said. "By our testing, we expect to increase this rate in Chicago."

Investors include: National Broadcasting Co., Tele-Communications, Inc.; Gannett Co., Inc. and A.C. Nielsen.

Manpower predicts 4th quarter hiring downturn

Lakeland Newspapers

Manpower Services, a major temporary service employer in Lake County, predicts employment reductions to overtake hiring gains this fall in Lake County, based on its poll of companies' staffing plans for the fourth quarter of 1993.

"Of the local executives questioned about workforce options for October, November and December, 10 percent say they will increase personnel while 13 percent forecast fewer workers by year-end," said Chuck Bartels of Manpower. "Additionally, 74 percent expect to maintain current levels and three percent have not yet decided."

Bartels added that while holiday-related hiring leads during the fourth quarter, other sectors experience an employment drop-off during the final quarter.

Present plans, according to Bartels, are far less promising than even last quarter, when 33 percent of those polled intended to create more jobs and 10 percent envisioned cutbacks. Last year at this time, employers were a little more optimistic with their growth plans as 20 percent predicted labor gains while 13 percent sought to reduce staff size.

Bartels predicts the best opportunities for employment this fall will be in the services industry, while staff reductions are expected in wholesale/retail trade and education. Mixed readings are reported, according to Bartels in durable good and manufacturing jobs.

Sci-Fi Channel available

US Cable began broadcasting the Sci-Fi Channel network, featuring science fiction, fantasy, classic horror and science fact programming on Sept. 1.

According to US Cable General Manager Paul Ashley, the new network is owned by the USA

Network and is a 24-hour service based in New York.

"We are excited to be bringing a wide variety of science fiction programming to US Cable with the launch of the Sci-Fi Channel," said Ashley.

US Cable is based in Waukegan.

Baxter International Inc.

This Deerfield based giant in healthcare products had had some volatility of late. Although they have R&D programs in biotech, diagnostics and other medical fields, hospital products and services still make nearly 50 percent of the company's sales. As such, Baxter has been subject to the speculation surrounding the healthcare field. With the announcement that no dramatic price constraints are on the horizon, Baxter rebounded slightly.

Investment Trends

In addition to the healthcare system concerns, the Department of Veterans Affairs proposed barring Baxter from future government contracts.

On the positive side, Baxter has signed a deal with Spectral Diagnostics of Canada for strategic diagnostic cardiac research and marketing, as well as the formation of a gene therapy unit. The gene therapy unit is designed to consolidate efforts to develop new treatments for cancer, hemophilia and diabetes.

With a price of $26.75, Baxter is a good long-term hold based on flat earnings this year and good estimated earnings for 1994. The company also raised their dividend 16 percent in April to provide investors with approximately a 3.7 percent yield.

AT&T—One of the most identifiable names in American business, AT&T also provides a good investment opportunity for those seeking growth and income. With a price of $62.60 and a 2.1 percent yield, the dividend is comparable to current money market and CD rates while presenting a good growth opportunity.

AT&T has a price earnings multiple of 21 based on what is predicted to be aggressive growth in years to come. With acquisitions of McCraw Cellular, NCR Computers and the popularity of the AT&T Universal credit card, AT&T now relies on telecommunication for only 61 percent of its sales revenue.

With its refusal to become stagnant, and its strong growth prospects and corporate strategy, AT&T is recommended as a strong buy as earnings are expected to increase to $3.15 per share in 1993, up from $2.86 in 1992.

Down home living on a modern farm

Yellow like the tinge of a sun all year round, stands one of three Chardon houses remaining, atop a hill on the roadside in unincorporated Grayslake.

Jack and Cheryl Bowes residence prevails, forgotten by time on Gilmer Road, preserved by its owners who understand the meager amount of farm dwellings that have endured in the county.

Chardon, a name with the French inflection that still baffles some, believed to stand for part "Char" part "Don", a duo of husband and wife, presumably the original owners of the prosperous midwestern plantation, that one time consisted of at least four adjacent farms, is all but whole in this day and age.

"Krop" may have been the fundamental builder's last name, according to the old-timers in the area. At least two of the original four Chardon homes still exist, one on Erhart Road and the other on Chardon Road owned by multi-millionaire John F. Cuneo.

Story by TINA SWIECH
Photos by GENE GABRY

The Bowes family worked hard to make the Victorian house their home, and now live happily in the structure, that was almost forgotten by time.

The Mundelein-area entrepreneur, part-owner of Crossroads restaurant, and Emil's Pizza, along with his wife and their three children Brian, 11; Jack Jr., 4; and Brooke, 3; live the country life in a county that is one of the fastest growing in the nation.

According to Jack's wife, the Bowes family could have purchased someplace more modern but they wanted a home where the walls could tell stories if they could talk. A place with personality.

Prior to buying the Chardon home, the Bowes had their eye on a 10-acre parcel in Wisconsin with a contemporary house. The land was nice, according to Cheryl, but the house just wasn't what the former farm-girl was looking for.

So she told her family, "If I'm gonna move, I'm gonna move to a place that has a lot of character and charm." The Gilmer Road piece was it.

The couple agrees that the work has been hard, fixing up the old homestead, but they are glad they did it. Recent appraisals have happily surprised the Bowes, as they explained that their home is worth quite a bit more than what they purchased it for, at what they call "a fair price."

"We're glad we bought it, without

With the setting sun rays streaming across the Bowes' residence, one can appreciate the country setting of the yellow Chardon house and its main barn. Although the house has been resided, the Victorian architecture still prevails.

a doubt," said Cheryl, who fancies herself the house handy-woman. "We've done a lot of work to it." Mrs. Bowes believes in the family carrying out most tasks, rather than hiring an outsider. "We did most of the work ourselves," she explained.

The first thing that the Bowes did was to redo both bathrooms and install new windows throughout the house. Last year, the Bowes took all of the old wallpaper off of the kitchen "and it kind of shocked me when I found holes in the walls. A minor project turned out to be rather major," said Cheryl.

But all was not lost, as the ingenious Mrs. Bowes put up some paneling in the form of rough-sawn cedar - very country. In fact, she said she did the whole job herself in one day, and outlined how surprised her husband was when he got home from work.

The next job entailed siding the outside of the poorly insulated building. This was very costly.

Then the rest of the outer structure was made over with new trim and new roof shingles added. "The outside of the house is basically brand new," said Cheryl. However, photos prove the evidence of the Victorian era, that not even fresh siding can hide.

The five-acre parcel around the house was landscaped by Jack and Cheryl's hands, including the planting of trees and shrubbery, not to mention kaleidoscopic perennials that dot the yard.

A yellow chicken coop, formerly filled with "junk," according to Cheryl, has since been cleaned out, and a new floor and windows added, making a perfect playhouse for her children.

"Superstitious Step," their 13-year old quarter horse has plenty of room (Cont'd. on page 19)

Cheryl Bowes shows off the country kitchen complete with hanging pots. At top, the living room with its open country decor.

The laying of an antique red brick line on the way to the barn was set down by Cheryl herself, and windows were replaced with new, as well as recently installed stalls inside for the horse.

An old fashioned picket fence surrounds the front near the road, put up by the family also.

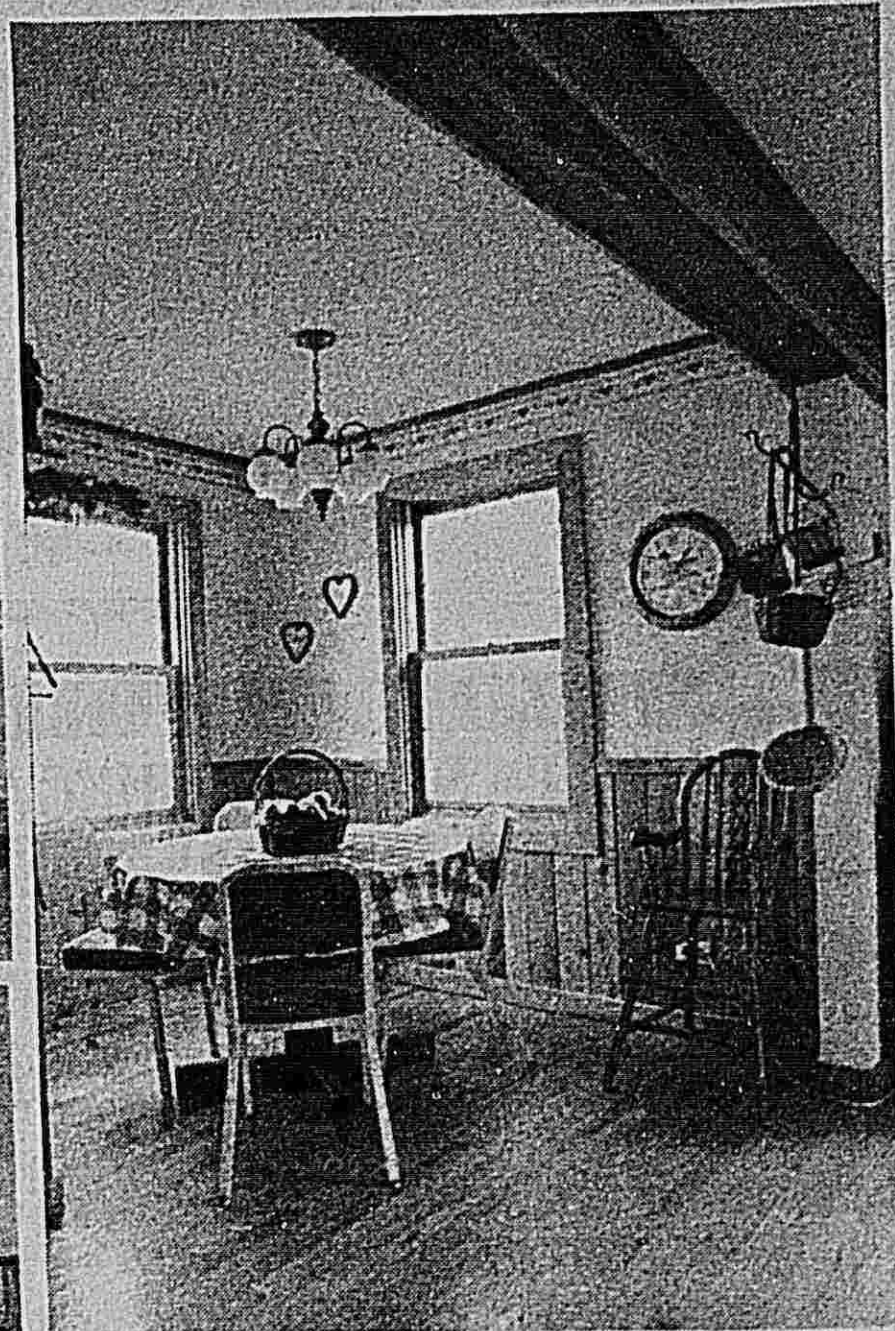

Because of the abundant land and buildings, livestock has the room to roam. Their 4-H Club-enthusiast children earned a ribbon for Grand Champion Steer, which went for $5,200 at the auction following judging during the Lake County Fair. The Bowes children also nurtured until full grown, a lamb which ultimately was granted the title of Reserve Champion at the county fair.

These and the other "country" things that the family loves to do together, may never have been, without the beloved farm that they were determined to purchase.

The Bowes family explained that they bought the property five years ago from affluent businessman Bill White.

A Dairy barn once stood out back, now taken down. A former pig and show barn, is no more, but the yellow Chardon house and main barn still sit ageless up on a hill, not far from a curve, in a country setting, with the essence of the modern-day family, Bowes.

Clockwise from bottom, the master bedroom with its barn like walls and ceiling. A large country style dining room with refinished hardwood floors. Finally, the kitchen eat-in nook shows the rough-sawn cedar paneling which Cheryl Bowes did herself.

Household product protects indoors

Use of water-based rubber and vinyl protectants claim that such products aid around the house in many nontraditional uses. Best known for guarding against cracking in rubber, vinyl and plastic automotive surfaces, protectants are a strong ally in weathering the elements inside the house as well.

Consumers recommend Armor All® protectant on surfaces in and around the home, ranging from patio furniture to scuba gear.

Some of the consumers' ideas include:

•Patio furniture: Surface protection on patio furniture will help keep it looking good.

•Cabinets: Apply protectant to cabinets to renew gloss and sheen.

•Sporting equipment: Vinyl bags and casings, such as golf bags and musical instrument cases, show and look better with use of protectant. It can also help to keep the shaft of your clubs looking scratch-free.

•Handy work helper: Use a protectant to lubricate the screw before driving it into a hard wood surface.

Caring family

An elderly mother was confined to her bed for six weeks. During this time, she had to be moved from side to side for better circulation. One of the handiest ideas came from a part-time nurse.

Take a twin flat sheet and fold it lengthwise, then lay it across the center of the mattress and tuck the ends into each side. When the patient needs to be moved, station someone on the other side, untuck one side, and roll the patient carefully to the opposite side toward the second person. This works to prevent the patient from accidentally rolling out of bed onto the floor.

Hand-me-downs

To keep track of hand-me-down clothes purchase a foot locker for each size. When one outgrows clothes, they go into the next locker until they fit the next person. This helps keep clothes sorted until needed.

Ready-mix

A quick and easy way to please children who like peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, try mixing a batch of peanut butter and jelly in the same jar and store it in the refrigerator. It is ready any time the kids want a sandwich.

Kitchen drawer

Home or apartment kitchens with limited counter space can benefit from this tip. In order to make more space,

Household

when cooking for company, open a top drawer and put a cookie sheet over the top, then close it so the tray fits tightly. Every inch of counter space matters, and this will give you a little more room that is sorely needed.

Recycle sweaters

Instead of throwing away old sweaters unravel them and turn them into balls of yarn to make a colorful afghan.

Miracle filters

Next time you are at a rummage sale and see coffee filters, get them, even though you do not drink coffee! This lowly and inexpensive (fluted) filter has a multiple of uses. For instance, use a flattened filter as a dish cover in the microwave to absorb spills and spatters. Place small mugs or small bowls inside a filter to catch anything that bubbles over. Place filters between small bowls inside a filter to catch anything that bubbles over. Place filters between small nesting nonstick pans to prevent scratches—use between fine china too (especially handy between cups and bowls).

Flatten a filter and fold in half for an absorbent holder when serving tacos or sloppy joes. Place a filter in the bottom of a flowerpot before adding soil. It keeps dirt from washing through the drainage holes after watering. Try using a filter to apply shoe polish, then throw away when done (no more messy rags to store).

Conserving water

Keep a gallon ice-cream bucket in the sink and when you run either hot water to get it hotter or cold to get it colder, catch it in the bucket. When the bucket is full, water the flowers with it. No water then goes to waste.

Recipe files

Have a lot of recipes, but don't know how to organize them? Purchase a simple accordion file with 12 slots and label each of the slots: main dishes, desserts, salads, breads, etc. When you clip a recipe, just slip it into the appropriate slot. When you want to try a new recipe, it's easy to pull out the file and look through it. After trying a recipe, if you like it, you can put it in a permanent folder and if not, throw it out.

Flower magic

To extend short stems on flowers, insert the stem (freshly cut at an angle) into a plastic straw. Next, cut the straw to the desired length. Make sure that the stem of the flower is below the water line in the vase.

Rust rings

Having trouble with rust stains from shaving cans, etc. on bathroom countertops? Try placing a coaster under the can. You can even color-coordinate with the bathroom to add a pretty touch.

Card trick

Why put a card on top of a gift? The card covers part of the beautiful gift wrap. At a birthday or wedding, it is obvious whom the gift is for, so you don't have to put on an envelope with a name on it. It should be placed on top of the tissue inside the box. This way, it won't be lost when opened. Cards that are taped can come off when lots of boxes are stacked and bounced around.

Take time now for annual bed check

One of the most beneficial home improvements you can make is in the piece of furniture you use more than any other in the house—your bed. When you're ready to feather the nest, consider more than just aesthetics. Beautiful bed linens and a handsome headboard are nice, but it's the quality of the mattress that affects your sleep, overall health and well-being.

How do you know when it's time for a new mattress? The following are guidelines to help you examine your bed:

1. Is the mattress more than 8 to 10 years old? If so, it's probably no longer providing adequate comfort and support.
2. Is the cover soiled, stained or torn?
3. Do the mattress or foundation (box spring) surfaces show sagging spots or look uneven?
4. Would you be embarrassed to show your bed, without covers, to your neighbors?
5. Is the mattress comfortable in some places and in some positions, but not in others?

6. When you turn over, do you hear creaks or crunches?

7. When you roll around, does the bed wobble or sway?

8. Are you and your partners rolling together without meaning to?

9. Are you fighting each other for enough space to get comfortable?

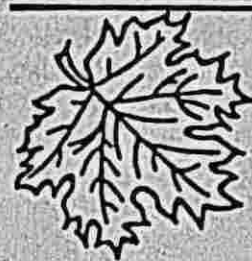

10. Do you wake up with a neck or backache? If you answered "yes" to one or more of these questions, your old mattress may be ready for retirement. Still in doubt? Go mattress shopping and compare what is available today with the feel of your old mattress.

A safety note: If you have a mattress made before the 1973 Federal Mattress Flammability Standard took effect, it is not cigarette-ignition resistant. These beds are a fire hazard and should not be passed along or stored in your home. In fact, any mattress to old or worn for you should not be transferred to guest rooms or handed down to children whose growing bodies need optimum support.

Fall Foliage

Ideal time for lawn work is here

Late summer/early fall is an optimum time for lawn care in northern Illinois. This would include just about all activities, including seeding, renovating, and fertilizing, according to Bruce Spangenberg, Extension Horticulture Educator with the Univ. of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service.

When putting in a new lawn, now is the ideal time for seeding. Start the process by eliminating any perennial weed problems existing on the site. These may be dug by hand, but it is critical to remove the entire plant. Another option use a non-selective herbicide, such as glyphosate, sold as Roundup or Kleenup. Once the weeds are dead, the area can be worked up and seeded. Glyphosate doesn't leave a soil residue that would harm seedlings.

Spangenberg stresses a second very important step in the process is to thoroughly work the soil before seeding or sodding. Improve poor soils by adding organic material, such as compost, peat, rotted manure, etc. Six inches or more of well prepared soil is suggested. Taking shortcuts when establishing a lawn usually comes back to haunt the lawn later in the form of assorted problems.

Weakened or thin lawns benefit from overseeding now. Using a slit-seeder is an excellent way to do this. Slit seeders cut through existing turf and place grass seed in contact with the soil, which helps assure good germination. Check local rental agencies for this machine or landscaping companies may be available for hire.

Early September is an excellent time to deal with thatch problems. Dethatchers are available to tear out thatch, which usually requires some overseeding afterwards. Another option is to aerify the turf, preferably using a core aerator, which pulls up cores of soil and thatch to the surface. This helps solve the causes of the thatch buildup in addition to helping control existing thatch.

Early September is also an ideal time to fertilize. Begin by choosing quality lawn fertilizers containing slow-release nitrogen.

Home safety should be concern for everyone

Safety is a concern for everyone, especially for parents. An important part of raising children is careful supervision of activities, as well as teaching responsible behavior in the home. In addition, here are some tips for creating a safely appointed home, in which the risk of children's unforeseen accidents is greatly reduced.

Shelves: Make sure all shelves are free of splinters and paint chips. They also should be sturdy enough so children cannot pull them over on top of themselves; bolting freestanding shelves into the wall is the safest measure.

Furniture: Reinforce wobbly legs and remove unsafe pieces. Cover sharp edges with cushioned covers. Discourage horseplay and jumping on sofas and chairs.

Fireplace/heaters: Cover the fireplace area with a childproof screen or block the entire area with furniture if possible. Keep sharp tools and flammable fluids out of reach. Never leave a child alone in a room when a fire is going. Do not place a space heater within children's reach or close enough to beds/cribs for them to throw covers onto it.

Bathtubs: Never leave small children unattended in the bath, not even for an instant. Equipping the bathtub with non-slip stickers if helpful, but remember that hard porcelain can easily become a slippery and dangerous surface. A child can drown in less than two inches of water. You may want to cushion the faucets and spout to protect your child in case of a fall.

Kitchens: Remove control knobs on the stove when it's not in use. Keep the stove and dishwasher doors locked and drawers latched at all times. Lock up plastic bags of all sizes. Keep cleaning products out of reach.

Electrical outlets/cords: Cover all unused outlets with plastic covers to avoid potential electrical shock. Run cords under carpets if possible, or attach them to baseboards with tape or nails. Wrap any loose cords and put them out of children's reach.

Stairs: Block off stairwells with gates at both top and bottom. Keep stairs clear at all times, and teach children how to navigate steps carefully. If a guardrail doesn't exist, install one, taking care to set the bars close enough that your children cannot fit their heads between the bars.

Bedrooms are going natural

Bedrooms are going natural with untreated cotton bed linens for people seeking products that are pure and chemical free.

Consumers prefer bed linens made from 100 percent pure untreated cotton without chemicals, dyes or other impurities.

The pure cotton linens have an old-fashioned look. The fabric is a natural shade of ivory with small fiber particles seen in the weave of the fabric. Reminiscent of linens from a former era, the fabrics become whiter and softer through washing and use.

Many home decorators emphasize the old-fashioned look and feel of the fabric to create a country decor using antiques and Americana accessories as accents.

Do-it-yourself projects using natural bed linens can include a decorative bed canopy reminiscent of Colonial days using three queen sheets. The canopy can be made in under an hour without sewing simply by knotting and stapling the fabric in dramatic folds.

Romantic swaged draperies can also be used without sewing using knots and rubber bands. A loveseat or sofa is revamped with a wrap and tie slipcover, and a pair of pillowcases can be used to make a drawstring lampshade to complete the country decor. By varying the accessories, a totally different environment can be created.

Fall Foliage

Dead circles of grass

Over the past few weeks, rings or circular patches of dead grass have been appearing on area lawns and other turf areas. In many cases, this problem is a serious disease commonly called fusarium blight, according to Bruce Spangenberg, Extension Horticulture Educator with the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service.

What has been called fusarium blight for years is now known as summer patch or necrotic ring spot. These and other fungi have been discovered in recent years as the cause of these patch diseases in lawns. The typical symptom is crescent-shaped or circular patches of dead grass, often with clumps of green grass inside. The green grass inside the dead patch is often called "frog-eye."

In most cases, these diseases attack lawns under stress from adverse growing conditions. Spangenberg outlines a typical infected lawn to have a problem thatch layer and poor soil conditions underneath. Often these lawns have been sodded fairly recently with little or no preparation to the clay soil underneath. These conditions lead to poor root penetration and development, and also often a problem thatch layer.

Attention should be given to improving conditions for root growth and taking care of problem thatch. Aerifying will help improve soil conditions and take care of thatch. This can be done via hiring a service or renting the equipment and doing it yourself.

Time to start thinking of winterizing homes

Following are several suggestions on getting your car and home winterized before the first cold spell sets in:

Any rust spots?

Winter is the time rust takes hold of a car's finish. By removing any rust spots in the fall, you will prevent bigger and uglier rust spots in the spring.

To touch up these rust spots, you must first clean the area of all rust and expose bare metal on the edges of the damaged surface. Be sure to feather the edges of the paint so that the entire area is smooth and the transition from bare metal to paint is seamless. For your money, the best tool to use for this stage of the repair is a high-speed rotary tool outfitted with a grinding stone or sanding drum.

Rotary tools operate at very high speeds, up to 30,000 rpm, and are perfect for cleaning a couple of rusty inches from a car. After cleaning the area, smooth in some body putty to fill rust scars, allow to dry and give a final sanding. Repaint the area and it should be sealed for another few years.

Wind in your panes?

Did your windows whistle on cold days last year? Will a strong wind rustle your shades even when your windows are closed? Chances are, your window glazing needs replacing and your windows are loose in their frames. Save money and heat by repairing the glazing before the colder weather sets in.

Wood windows, particularly older models with many small panes, are often glazed. These windows are designed to hold the glass in place with tiny metal triangles called "points" that clip the window into the frame like a photograph in a picture frame. A thick putty, called glazing, is then installed around the perimeter of the window to create a weatherproof seal between the window and the frame. Over time and exposure to the elements, this glazing dries out, becoming brittle and breaking that weather-tight seal.

The toughest part of do-it-yourself reglazing is removing the old glazing. Rotary tools work best for this. Use a Moto-Tool with a tungsten carbide cutter to trace around the outside edge of the old glazing. The rotary tool will quickly remove the glazing and provide a smooth, clean surface to reglaze. Reset or replace points as needed, they should be readily available at the neighborhood hardware store. Use a small putty knife to smooth in the new glazing. A wet sponge can give a professional final finish, and a coat of paint will add a couple years of life to the repair. Storm windows

If you have older storm windows and doors, they are probably not fastened to the house as tightly as when they were installed. That's because, although their frames are usually aluminum, the fasteners, screws, nails and rivets, used to install them are usually not made of such a rustproof material.

For this job, a rotary tool with a cut-off wheel can solve the problem. When attached to a Moto-Tool, the cut-off wheel can either cut a fresh slot in a rusted or stripped screw head, or it can cut the head off the screw completely. Once the screw head is off, you can put a drill bit in the Moto-Tool and drill out the rest of the rusted bolt or drill a hole for the new screw. A bead of latex caulk at the inside seams will help form a weather-tight seal.

Furniture romance: 10 signs that it's in trouble

Admit it. The cozy embrace of your '70s sofa has gone from Spanish Modern to Spanish Inquisition. That '50s chrome dinette you picked up somewhere has lost the kitschy charm that tickled your fancy.

Letting go isn't easy. How can you be sure the romance has faded with the upholstery? You may want to start cruising furniture showrooms if:

Keeping score

1. That chest of drawers that got you through teething, puberty and your first apartment now can't even hold all your designer boxer shorts.

2. You'll only inherit

Aunt Agatha's china if you promise not to display it in those wall-mounted orange crates.

3. You'd like to schedule meetings in your at-home office, but clients have a hard time getting out of the beanbag chairs.

4. You're tired of telling visitors that your door-on-two-sawhorses desk is a "design statement."

5. The cinder blocks that held up your loud-speakers since "Abbey Road" came out crumbled when you cranked up your new CD system.

6. You want to read yourself to sleep, but "The Firm" became "The Soggy" when your waterbed sprang a leak.

7. Your dining room chairs would match perfectly if they were all stamped with the name of the same funeral parlor.

8. That knockdown bookcase knocked down two neighbors and a tray of hors d'oeuvres at your last party.

9. Your kids just found out that "end table" is not the standard term for a telephone-cable spool with a lava lamp on it.

10. The guest of honor at your formal dinner is easy to spot: She's the one with the unrusted TV tray.

If three or more of the above describe your relationship with your home environment, it's time to rethink, sort out, and update for style and quality. Getting serious

Getting serious about furniture means meeting solid hardwoods: materials you can depend on, such as oak, maple, alder, birch or cherry.

In fact, a reliable test of whether an old item is worth saving—or if you'll still respect a new one tomorrow—is "What's it made of?" Solid hardwood construction generally means durability, classic style, warm grain and comfortable textures—qualities that will hold their value and fit your home for a lifetime.

And you can still play around a little. Solid hardwoods adapt to the most eclectic settings. With a little thought, you can make that wicker porch rocker cuddle up to a new oak table or a walnut entertainment center.

Buying solid hardwood furniture doesn't take a long courtship. If you haven't had a lot of experience, talk to furniture retailers, contact a trade association or consult an interior design professional.

Furnishing without guilt
According to the Hardwood Manufacturers Assn., American hardwoods will be plentiful for generations to come, thanks to modern forestry. Many more trees are growing than are harvested every year.

And remember, some of those former thrift shop finds can be recycled back to the thrift shop. That way, old but usable pieces can lead extended lives and stay out of the waste stream. Goodwill Industries, the Salvation Army and other organizations in your area can supply pickup details.

Renting a viable option for today's empty-nesters

Vilas Development's Rainfree Condominiums in west suburban Glen Ellyn offer empty-nesters a park-like setting that includes a variety of recreational facilities.

A wide spectrum of housing options are available for empty-nesters. Choices run the gamut from apartments to custom-built homes, each offering distinct advantages depending on a person's needs and tastes.

According to Dan Sawusch, president of Des Plaines-based Citadel Management Inc., renting is a popular option for many empty-nesters.

"Renting allows empty nesters to sell their current homes and invest the money so it works for them, rather than putting it into a mortgage," he said. "Leasing offers care-free living with cash to go."

Heat, air conditioning and cooking gas are typically included in monthly apartment rents, a plus for retirees living on fixed incomes, said Sawusch.

"Aside from rent, electric and telephone are the only separate bills," he said. "As a result, it's easy to keep monthly expenses in check."

According to Mary Antepenka of RE/MAX Combined, the exclusive selling agent for an empty-nester property, one-level condominiums traditionally have been favorites for the empty-nester market.

"Once the children are gone and a couple or single person is living alone, there's really no need anymore to isolate bedrooms upstairs," Antepenka said.

Maintenance-free living is boosting townhomes' popularity with empty-nesters according to David Hoffman, president of Red Seal Development Corp.

"We've seen tremendous interest in townhomes from the empty-nester segment of the market," said Hoffman. "That's because in addition to offering maintenance-free living, our townhomes have single-family-home appeal. They feature the same square footage and amenities but at much lower prices."

A new type of community entered the housing scene several years ago and has been gaining empty-nester acceptance ever since. These communities offer detached single-family homes, often carrying names such as clubhomes or patio homes, in a maintenance-free setting.

Donald A. Mitroff, president of The Arlington

Heights-based Mitroff Companies and developer of Windhill in Palatine, said freedom from maintenance worries is the key for purchasers of Windhill Clubhomes.

"Our residents want single-family homes along with the freedom to travel or pursue other interests," said Mitroff. "In our clubhome environment they don't have to worry about cutting the grass or shoveling snow. As an added benefit, we feature sprinkler systems and landscaping as part of their total package, rather than making that something new homebuyers have to handle."

"We do not have tennis courts or a swimming pool," and as a result, our association fees are low," said Mitroff.

Autumn is signal to protect home, outdoor furniture

The coming of autumn is a signal to do simple outdoor repairs and maintenance. Winter and summer wear-and-tear creates rotting and irreparable damage to your home and outdoor furniture.

Here are some easy repair tips for extending the life of your home and patio investments:

- A clean, dry surface—free from oil, loose particles or rotten wood—is a must before starting any repairs.

- Fine-sand outdoor wood area that need repair.

- Fill in cracks and holes in wood surfaces using a professional-quality wood filler before a top-coat paint or stain is applied.
- After applying wood filler, remove any excess with a putty knife or a damp cloth. Allow two to eight hours drying time before applying another coat, if necessary. Sand to a smooth surface and paint.

- If you plan to stain the wood filler, make sure you sand with a coarse or medium sandpaper before staining. All stains react differently to wood grain, density and color variations, so test the stain on a piece of scrap wood to match wood filler color.

- To finish repairs, always top-coat the surface with an exterior-grade paint, stain or clear finish.

Ask your local hardware dealer about professional-quality wood fillers that speed home repairs and help you to maintain your property and home investments.

Know these top safety rules when using tools

Home improvement projects, while seemingly easy, nonetheless call for proper care and caution when it comes to using hand tools. American Tool Companies reminds tool users that hand tools come in various sizes, shapes and degrees of hardness, depending on their intended uses. They should be used only as recommended by the manufacturer.

Any tool, no matter how durable, can fail if it is misused. Metal-to-metal contact under pressure, combined with a striking or twisting motion, can result in broken metal fragments that can cause injury. In the interest of do-it-yourselfer safety, American Tool offers these general rules from the Hand Tools Institute for the safe and proper use of hand tools:

- Follow the manufacturers' instructions on the packages.
- Wear safety goggles when using hand tools.
- Keep all tools in clean, working order.

- Use the tool only for the job it was meant to do.
- Buy several versions or sizes of the same tool to ensure the right tool for the job.
- Throw away damaged or abused tools promptly.
- Be sure tools, work are compatible.
- Be sure handles are fixed firmly into a tool's working end.

- Confine impact forces to striking and struck tools.
- Shut off current before using a tool near electricity.
- Hold work in a clamp or vise, not in your hand.
- Pull instead of push a wrench handle for safer leverage.

• Keep jaw teeth, cutter and blades sharp for better results.

- Use steady pressure on jaws and cutters; don't rock the tool.
- Keep a tool's moving parts properly cleaned and tightened.
- Use pads in the jaws to protect soft or crushable work.

WE DO BANQUETS TOO, FOR ANY OCCASION

Flanagan's offers great food options

At Flanagan's in North Chicago, you can expect great homemade food, a pleasant, clean atmosphere and courteous service.

Last year, John Psihos, owner of Full Moon Restaurant for over 15 years, built a new restaurant, Flanagan's, on Buckley Road in North Chicago. "I felt there was something missing from the area. We needed a nice, cozy place for people to get together. I built Flanagan's, a restaurant with Irish spirit and Greek hospitality" said John.

As you enter Flanagan's, you'll be surrounded by luscious green plants, a massive wooden arch-style roof and comfortable seating arrangements. Flanagan's boasts a full-service lounge with over 20 draft beers and 20 bottle beers, a banquet facility for up to 150 people, a private loft dining area and an outdoor eating area with a barbecue pit in the summertime.

For lunch, try the chicken breast sandwich served in over five different ways, or try a gyros sandwich made with slices of gyro meat on pita bread and topped with onions, tomatoes and tzatziki sauce.

For the lighter appetite, enjoy one of the 15 appetizers including the awesome blossom, a whole 20-ounce onion rose cut, batter dipped, deep-fried and served with ranch dressing or the Mediterranean salad with lettuce, garnish and strips of char-broiled chicken.

Dinner is a relaxing experience at Flanagan's. There's corned beef and cabbage, alfredos, stir fries and great barbecue ribs. All this along with the traditional American fare such as chicken, seafood and steaks are available.

"Everyone is welcome. Enjoy quality food at a reasonable price," John said. Flanagan's is located on Buckley Road (Rte. 137) just west of the intersection of Rte. 41. They're open 11 a.m. to 1 a.m. daily. Call 689-9062 for information.

Apples by the score and a whole lot more at Quig's

Apple cider donuts, apple pancakes, apple sauce . . . and almost every other type of food imaginable is on the menu at Quig's Orchard Restaurant, 1/4 mile north of Midlothian Rd. on Rte. 83 in Mundelein.

The business has been around since 1947, growing from an orchard and roadside store selling apples from a truck to a full service restaurant seating more than 100. Owned by Bob and Marion Quig, the enterprise is still watched over by Grandma Mildred Quig. Daughter Pam Berek is on hand in this family endeavor as well.

The restaurant is a popular spot on the weekends, but for breakfast in a relaxed atmosphere during the week, there's nothing like Quig's.

"We serve a fantastic hash brown omelet," said Berek. "If you're really hungry, try the rolled apple pancakes."

If you think oatmeal is boring, you haven't had Quig's Apple Cinnamon Oatmeal made from an old family recipe. Cooked with apple cider and full of apple chunks and cinnamon and garnished, if you wish, with brown sugar and pecans, it's like having dessert for breakfast.

Daily breakfast and lunch specials are offered by chef Tony Gutierrez. Sometimes he may feature a pork chop dinner complete with mashed potatoes or a grilled chicken salad. Those with smaller appetites may opt for a cup of soup with a half sandwich, or a chef's salad.

All the soups, from the baked onion to the chili, are made with the freshest ingredients. Gutierrez is very particular about the quality of his food, and has brought Quig's a lot of customers with those high standards.

"We're lucky to have him," said Berek.

After finishing a delicious meal, diners frequently linger in the bakery and the country store where they can find everything from cheese and sausage to soup mixes and the famous apple cider. A number of novelty and gift items are available as well as functional and decorative kitchen supplies.

"We carry high quality gift items that people can't get in other places," Berek said.

Quig's is sponsoring special weekend activities during the fall. On Sept. 11 and 12 the 4-H Eager Beavers from Grayslake and Save-A-Pet will hold an Animal Fair with a leader dog and other animals. A craft show is scheduled for Sept. 18 and 19.

Apple picking season begins Sept. 9 for Macintosh, then it's time for Jonathans on the 23rd, Red Delicious on the 30th and Golden Delicious and Rome Beauty on Oct. 7. Call ahead for times and availability.

Quig's Orchard Restaurant is open from 7 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday, and will be open Columbus Day, Oct. 11. Hours for the Bakery and Country Store are 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Greenhouse and Gift Shop are open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information call 566-4520.

LIPSERVICE

IT'S THE TALK OF THE TOWN

Lakeland

Gotcha!

I live in Mundelein and I would like the person in the brown pick-up truck who took the neatly stacked pile of logs in front of my house to please return them. This occurred about 5 p.m. on Aug. 27 according to my neighbor who also noted your license plate number. My house is near the turn-around, just in case you stopped by other houses.

I see London

As the father of a Grayslake student, I was offended by the lack of dress code of the varsity cheerleaders at a recent scrimmage. Is it necessary for these young women to so blatantly expose their underwear in public? Harumph! Proper attire should be mandated by the rules of the school.

Wants someone new

I am a resident of Wauconda and I think we should get some new people on the school board. If the job hasn't been getting done in the past 14 years, what makes anyone think these people can do it now?

Thanks, but

I was at the Kristoff's meeting covered by your paper. It is clear to me that a lot of what you wrote was taken out of context. It is great to see that Lakeland Newspapers has found someone to cover the news in Round Lake. Still, it would be better if you just wrote the news without personal input. There are a lot of good things happening in Round Lake. The schools deserve more coverage and you could have done a little more with the Avon Township summer baseball. Get with it Lakeland. The paper delivered to my door does read Round Lake Area News.

Party hostage

This is to thank the officials of Lake Villa for granting a permit that caused the residents in the northern section to be held hostage from 8 p.m. to 1:15 a.m. on Aug. 28 at a hard rock and roll birthday party that sounded more like it was in our homes than across Route 83 at the mansion house. And, a special thanks to the Lake Villa Police Department for their quick response to the many complaints about the party. I suggest the guidelines for such a permit be reviewed before we are all held hostage again.

Mad at neighbor

I live in Mundelein, Cambridge Country to be exact. I thought this was a nice, safe neighborhood until a neighbor of ours swerved down the street, took out a light post, hit a tree, and almost mowed down four pedestrians. Then, he drives into a trailer, hits a truck, turns down his own street, and hides in his house from the police. I would like you to print this because I want this man out of our neighborhood. We don't want him here.

*Editorial note: Dear readers:
Your poems are lovely,
This is true.
But calling them in,
Just makes us blue.
For us to print them,
We lament,
They must be properly,
Mailed and sent.*

In-law blues

My gripe is about my soon-to-be sister-in-law. She worries so much about my life that she seems to be her own newspaper. I wish she would get a life of her own. She needs to stop worrying about what goes on in my life because I feel her problems are a whole lot worse than mine. She should take a look in her own backyard before she opens her mouth again. Open up your eyes instead of your mouth.

No magic bus

One week into school and the Antioch educators have proved to be morons again. Parents, are you aware of the dangerous and illegal transport of your children to and from school? Students are in the aisles while the bus is moving and sitting three or four to a seat due to over capacity. It is comforting to know that the school authorizes this or even condones it. It is a method of blackmailing parents into voting for the upcoming tax increase. It is against the law and dangerous. We need to correct this immediately because we are gambling with our children's lives.

Get along

I am calling about Lake Villa's Sue Hanson and Jim Semmerling. They both were voted in by responsible taxpayers to do a serious job. We believed your campaign promises to be responsive to taxpayers. You are not in show business so learn to get along with each other and to be polite. Even if your own party people lost the election.

Placing the blame

Mr. Segin is so wrong! If he read any other County newspaper besides Lakeland, he would realize they all reported the news the same way. Congratulations, Lakeland Newspapers! He should blame the people. We do not want the riverboat here. Segin and Depke, who want $30 million from us in November can't seem to get that message. I am from Wauconda.

So there!

It has been established that marijuana disrupts the genetic equilibrium of brain cells. Some studies suggest that it is three to seven times more addictive than alcohol. That is why it is illegal.

Helpful lake police

In response to "Never had a problem," we had occasion to call the sheriff's office. Deputy Harrigan and two others came out. They were very nice and polite. They told us to keep calling if the boaters and jet skiers do not obey the no-wake law. Maybe you were rude to them.

No more tourism

Regarding the riverboat, we came out here to enjoy the lakes and rural areas. We sure don't need any more tourism. The village and township politicians that ignored the residents' wishes should and will be defeated at the polls. I am from Antioch.

Well, thank you

Good for you, Lakeland Newspapers. It is not the place of a news service to endorse or ignore any issue. People listen and read the news to be informed so that they can make up their own minds. Not for you to decide for us, or even to attempt to sway our minds. It is good to know that at least one local institution is not for sale.

Kitty alert

I am from Grayslake. This is not a prank call. This is a notice for all cat owners in the area of Burton and Harvey. Keep your cats inside. Grayslake does have a leash law. The cats are killing wild birds and causing problems. A group of people in the area have agreed to start trapping on Sept. 15. The conservation department will be picking them up and disposing of them. Just to let you know. You have been warned.

OBITUARIES

Russell William Wertke

Age 66, passed away September 2, 1993 of bone cancer. He was born on January 19, 1927 in Chicago, Illinois, the only child of Albert and Meta (Buchholz) Wertke, who preceded him in death. Russell was the owner of the Skyline Motel in Volo, Illinois. This was a business built by the family and was in business 40 years this past June. He also was co-owner of Caliber Engineering in Rolling Meadows until his retirement four years ago. He had worked tirelessly for the community of Volo and was happy to have lived long enough to see the Village of Volo incorporated.

He leaves behind his wife of 38 years, Elizabeth "Betty"; daughters Barbara (Richard) Johnson of Scituate, Massachusetts, Shirley (Clifton) Thrallkill of Duncanville, Texas; a son, SSgt. Edward Wertke, with the U.S. Air Force, stationed in Germany; grandchildren Stephanie, Sarah, and Jeffrey Johnson and Aimee, Stephanie and Tyler Thrallkill.

Visitation was held from 4:00 to 8:00 PM Saturday, September 4, 1993 at The George R. Justen and Son Funeral Home, 3519 W. Elm Street, McHenry, Illinois. A memorial service was held at 8:00 PM. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Hospice of Northeastern Illinois, Inc., 410 South Hager Avenue, Barrington, Illinois 60010 will be greatly appreciated.

Griefnotes

How long does grief last?

It is not possible to give an absolute answer to this question. Every individual reacts to loss a bit differently. We can expect intense grief during the first few weeks after a loss. In the following three or four months our feelings of grief may be strong as we encounter many reminders of the death. After that we will begin doing things for ourselves, yet continue to miss our loved one. We may become frustrated as we attempt to do things the deceased once did for us. As a second year without the deceased begins we may find our feelings of loneliness and sadness have lessened. As we develop new relationships and do more things for ourselves our grief will diminish and we will be able to restore hope and happiness in our lives. Our grief, however, may never completely disappear as our memories linger.

Dorothy L. Bowgren, nee Blomgren

Age 72, an Ingleside, IL resident for the past 45 years, formerly of Geneva, IL died August 25, 1993 in McHenry, IL. She was born on August 4, 1921 in Chicago, IL to Carl H. Blomgren and Clara Sandberg Blomgren. Mrs. Bowgren was a member of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Grayslake, IL; was a member of the St. Ann's Women's Altar Guild; and took an active part in the Church's activities. She was a member of the Grayslake Historical Society, and had formerly been active in the Big Hollow P.T.O.

Survivors include her husband Burton C. Bowgren of Ingleside, IL; one son James (Nora) Bowgren of McHenry, IL; one daughter Victoria (Stephen) Lada of Springfield, MO; one brother Carl (Katherine) Howard of San Francisco; three grandchildren Zachary and Anne Bowgren of McHenry, IL and Chad Lada of Missouri; nieces, nephews and other relatives survive. She was preceded in death by one brother Gordon Howard.

Memorial services for Mrs. Bowgren will be conducted at 10:00 A.M. Saturday, September 18th at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 31 Park, Grayslake, IL and all are invited to attend. Memorials to the Church in Mrs. Bowgren's name will be appreciated by the family. For information, call (708) 587-2100.

How To Survive The Job Search

By Nancy Sakol

Q: Dear...Search: I am writing because I am sick of working crummy jobs! I was employed with a great company for over four years and burned my bridges with them when I left last April to follow a girlfriend who was moving out of state for employment. Needless to say...that was short lived and I returned to find that I was no longer welcome in my former position or company for that matter.
Since that time I have gone through three jobs and I'm sick of it! When I go for an interview, the first thing that seems to be asked of me is why I have been job hopping. I am not being hired for any good jobs, so I am forced to take anything to survive. What do you suggest for someone in this rut? M.M. - Zion

A: Dear M.M. Leaving your job for four years plus on the
"if-comes" is now water under the bridge and basically you can't get that back, so move on! You say that your last three jobs were all crummy, however your biggest problem right now is overcoming the job hopping question during an interview. Find yourself something that you can tolerate for at least a year, hopefully longer. Get some sense of stability in your work history again, and perhaps the question of your job hopping will not be brought up to you. Therefore making it possible for you to not have to make excuses. Good luck!

Q: Dear...Search: As an owner of a new start up business, I am in need of going on to a computerized system instead of working everything manually. My problem is, that I need to find a way to train my employees and myself without the major expense of time off. How do you suggest going about this and is there such thing as an economical way to do so?
Thanks! L.G. - Lake Bluff

A: Dear L.G. The type of equipment and software you have purchased will dictate to you the expense involved in training. The good news is there are plenty of computer consultants who will come on-site to your location for group or one-on-one training. Prices vary tremendously so beware.
Also, the other alternative is to contact your local college for a list of computer classes. Sometimes these classes may be spread over several weeks which may or may not be suitable for you to teach the staff. But there are those we have found that are mini courses over a weekend or over a few evenings.
Feel free to contact me and I'll be happy to provide you with further info.

Note: Nancy Sakol is a licensed personnel professional and President of Superior Personnel in Gurnee.
Letters can be sent to Nancy at 5101 Washington St.,

LIPSERVICE

IT'S THE TALK OF THE TOWN

Lakeland

Short sheeted

I have been ripped off. I have been violated. One page of Lipservice in this week's paper? I do not believe this. It is really only two half pages. If this happens again, I am canceling my subscription. I mean it!

Editorial note: Dear reader, several people have noticed this. But, what you may not have noticed is that the print size has been reduced to compress the calls. That way, we can fit more calls in when we get them. And, don't forget, it's not the quantity but the quality that is really important.

Other options

I think it says a lot for District 118 that the school board is unable to think of any other option but to build a new school in Island Lake. What is going to happen when these kids advance to the middle school level? Build more schools?

Position confusion

This is a good one folks. Now that the riverboat gambling is safely out of our hair, check out a recent church bulletin. In there is an advertisement for a trip to Galena for three hours on a gambling boat. Job seekers should call their religious leaders. They may be willing to give you a free ride on the bus. Or, maybe share their winnings with you to support your families.

Crime is the problem

My name is Ann from Grayslake. I do not care if Ms. Paddock is a lesbian, heterosexual, or asexual. She has been accused of child molestation. Period. Regardless of her sexual orientation.

Haunted, where?

I want to know where this haunted house is on Kenwood in Round Lake. I have lived there all of my life.

Editorial note: Dear reader, you are not alone. We have received numerous calls from both citizens and even a paranormal researcher. If there really is a haunted house on Kenwood, could anyone tell us where?

In the dark

I am calling from Fox Lake. The power has been out for the third time today. Commonwealth Edison is on call and will not fix it until all the storms have passed. I am just calling to say I am irritated and I don't think I am alone. We are not happy with this service.

Support the plan

I hope that riverboat supporters will not blame Antioch's problems on the riverboat defeat. For ACHS, the money offered would be a drop in the bucket compared to what is really needed. In fact, it may have hurt the chances of future referendas. Unless the state finds another way to fund education, only an increase in the educational fund will help the school's problems. Support the ACHS referendum this November.

Wants more stops

I am calling from Grayslake. I do not understand how Woodland School bus drivers get off dropping children off at the corner when they drive past the houses. These kids are waiting on the street since there are no sidewalks. Wake up Woodland. Care about your kids.

Best interests

I would like to congratulate the way the Lake County Board, including Mr. Christensen and all the others about the way they handled the senior development complex. When they made their decision, they did it in the best interests of all.

Let's get along!

To the Lipservice bimbo who called the Lipservice gossip line because you were too spineless to show your face. You even sent anonymous letters with Lipservice articles attached. Guess you missed the boat on the editor's note about helping a neighbor with a fence. The implication was that you are too shallow of a person to know how to be a neighbor. The recommendation was to attempt to have a heart and open it up. The only embarrassment was to you. You should be able to speak your mind openly to the people concerned. Too bad you couldn't do it on your own. At least we live with peace and compassion. Good luck, you are going to need it. We'll think of you in our happy world.

MUSEUM TO SERVE AS MODEL

think that us being able to take part nationwide, is a great honor for us," the director said. Serving the public, however, is the number one goal of the museum, stressed Gallimore.

The project was developed in response to widespread implementation of 10 issues that were raised in the 1991 report Excellence and Equity: Education and the Public Dimension of Museums.

The director explained that public service is a major function at the Lake

Your museum will be laying the groundwork for others to follow."

Finding good ways to draw more people into the museum, especially making the museum more meaningful for them, is a major concern of officials, who would like to see the objective transpire from the study, explained Gallimore.

Steps in the project include the first phase to develop diagnostic and planning materials, and establish evaluation criteria and formats; phase II which will include visiting the 12 test sites; and phase III which includes strategic plan development, that will allow every test site to create individual plans implementing their projects.

Sometime during the year, one or two project members from the Lake County Museum, will go to Washington, D.C. to meet with other museum officials involved in the project.

Funding for the study will be paid for by a sponsorship which has been acquired by the AAM.

Gallimore explained that the museum itself will be paying for long range goals from the testing, such as documenting suburban development of Lake County; ways to make the museum more approachable and increase community involvement; and the expansion of ethnic diversities in the museum.

Drawing more minorities into the museum is another goal for twentieth century change, said Gallimore. For the past 10-years the museum has had an African-American exhibit, and also an American Indian display which it hopes to expand upon.

Last February the museum went through some badly needed expansion including having three cylindrical buildings made, designed by Architect Peter Meijer of Chicago.

The unique structures, which are actually one in the same, gives the feeling of farm facilities such as silos or corn cribs, and they aid in allowing more people into the museum site, holding extra space for displays, Gallimore said.

Also, the renovation of the museum store, run by volunteers, was done around the same time last year, explained the director.

by TINA SWIECH

County Museum, and the issues including mission, audience, learning, scholarship, boards, staff and volunteers, professional development, and leadership are being focused upon to see how effective museums fulfill their role.

The Lake County Museum is one of 11 other museums in the nation that were selected including the Baltimore City Life Museums; the California Academy of Sciences; the Lyman Allyn Art Museum in Connecticut; the Philadelphia Zoological Garden in Pennsylvania, and the University Art Museum at the University of New Mexico, among others.

The project will take three years, according to museum personnel, and already staff and volunteers have begun working on it, implementing programs that address these issues, such as collections, and the communities the museums serve.

Four of the 12 sites around the country have started Phase I of the project and the Lake County Museum will participate in Phase II of the National Demonstration Project which is scheduled to begin in January 1994, continuing through February 1996.

The county museum will serve as a component, providing valuable insights and strategies for developing the capacity of other institutions, according to Gallimore.

According to Kim Igoe, director of the American Association of Museums (AAM) in Washington, D.C., explained the significance of the Lake County Museum being chosen. In a letter to the museum, Igoe stated, "As one of the study sites participating in this seminal project, you are accepting an important responsibility.

Residents of Lake County can be proud of their museum which began in a dusty little barn in Wadsworth in 1956.

The Lake County Museum, now in Wauconda, is the only museum chosen in the state of Illinois, selected from over 280 applications throughout the country, to participate in the American Association of Museums National Research Demonstration Project to Expand Education in American Museums.

Goals that will make the Lake County Museum's participation significant include three words: Scholarship, Audience and Interpretation.

According to Janet L. Gallimore, director of the museum, the project will commence this fall, and is designed to study ways museums can be more meaningful and responsive to their communities.

"The long term results of this project will have great benefits for the people of Lake County," said Gallimore. "I

PRESERVING COUNTY HISTORY

The Lake County Museum traces its beginnings to two local residents, Robert Vogel and Lawrence Qualmann, who started up the museum in their barn on Rte. 45 in Wadsworth. They went on to collect numerous items nearly impossible to obtain today.

"We owe a great amount to the ones who began it (the museum)," said Janet L. Gallimore. The director explained that during the 1950s there was so much more antiquity and artifacts available than there is now.

Records show that in 1965, the historical collection was purchased by the County Board of Commissioners, and the items were placed in storage.

Then in agreement with the County of Lake in 1976, the museum reopened the historic collection for public display on property that is now called Lakewood Forest Preserve.

Today, the largest history agency in Lake County actively serves 22,000 people annually through educational services and research, and students as well as organization members attend events at the museum.

In the public trust, the museum manages and preserves exceptional collections including 18,000 objects, 10,000 items in its Regional History Archives, and 380,000 images in its Curt Teich Postcard Archives.

Some of the key programs and features of the museum include an exhibit which features a chronological visit to Lake County beginning 420 million years ago and traveling to the present. Other special events for family audiences, are Civil War Days, and Profiles in Excellence: African-American History in Lake County.

The museum is a not-for-profit organization, and is funded partially from donations; and also from service fees and grants, explained Gallimore. Membership donations are a crucial element to the funding of the museum as well, Gallimore added, and there are two types.

According to the director, becoming a member is a great way for people who want to do something, get involved. "If people can't volunteer," said Gallimore.

The museum is open Monday through Saturday from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Sunday from 1 to 4:30 p.m.—by TINA SWIECH

'Explore' series at CLC

The College of Lake County's "Explore" series for junior high students will be expanded from a half-day to an all-day program this fall beginning Sept. 25. Students may enroll in up to three classes offered from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., 12:15 to 2:15 p.m. and 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. at CLC's Grayslake campus.

The Sept. 25 morning session will include such classes as "Theater Games," "Beginning Ceramics," "A Soaring Sight: The Red-Tailed Hawk" and "Foil Fencing." Early afternoon classes will consist of "Improvisation," "Sabre Fencing," "Beginning Ceramics" and "A Soaring Sight: The Red-Tailed Hawk." The final afternoon session will offer "Archery," "Sign Language Part I," "Country and Western Dance" and "Yoga."

Other "Explore" courses will be offered Oct. 23 and Nov. 20. The cost is $10 per class or $25 for three classes. Students may bring their lunch or purchase lunch from the cafeteria. For registration and course information, call 223-3616.

Adler Center holds registration

David Adler Cultural Center (DACC) is now accepting registration for a wide array of classes for all ages in visual arts, music and garden arts. The Cultural Center's mission is to help people "make the arts part of daily life."

A wide range of classes will be offered for young people of all ages. Children between the ages of 4 and 6 can take part in a special art class just for preschoolers. Classes for elementary students include drawing, ceramics and several classes which introduce children to a variety of artistic media. Teens can take challenging classes in pottery or mixed media drawing.

For the musically inclined, the Cultural Center offers a variety of classes for all ages. "Rockabye Babies" is offered for little ones aged 6 to 18 months, "Tuneful Toddlers" will awaken the musical aptitudes of 1 1/2 to 3 years and children between the ages of 3 and 5 will enjoy, "Young Musicians in Motion." These classes will provide an introduction to rhythm and pitch through movement, games and exercises based on the Orff-Schulerker approach to music education.

Most classes begin the week of Sept. 13 and meet for 15 weeks through January 1994. For more information and to register call 367-0707. —by RHONDA VINZANT

Is It A Deal Or Travel Scam?

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

Airfare to Hawaii for $19. A 7 day Caribbean Cruise including airfare for $199. A week in Florida for two with a cruise thrown in for $269. Sound too good to be true?

Of course it is. But thousands of bargain seekers have lost millions of dollars to "scam artists" advertising travel deals just like these.

A recent advertisement offered a week long cruise for two for only $259. This company claimed they "overbought". I found this interesting since travel companies don't "buy" cruise space. They may contract for "x" number of cabins, but the unsold cabins may be canceled for a small fee. I called on this ad and will explain what I found in a moment.

How do you tell a real deal from a fraud? The Illinois Attorney General offers this time honored advice, if it sounds too good to be true.

The biggest tip-off though, and the one I found when calling to claim the $259 cruise, is the "voucher" scam which works like this.

You're asked for a credit card number to which a "voucher", costing $25 to $100 will be charged. This voucher, which is supposed to make you "eligible" for the low cruise price, is actually where these guys make their money. You're then asked to pick three sailing dates. Later you're told those dates are sold out and must pick other dates. This goes on until either you give up or the con artists fold up shop and move on to another scam.

The company is now out of business, but, as with most scams, the idea has been carried on by others. To get the $19 airfare you had to purchase a greatly overpriced hotel package.

Other so called travel deals involve spending a weekend with a high pressure salesman trying to sell you a "time share", but that's a story for another column.

Modeling the fashions will be members of each bank's Doers Club. Includes in the show will be women's fashions by M'Lady, Ltd., McHenry; mink jackets and coats by The Mink Barn, Union; custom fashions designed with velcro fasteners by Edna B. Creations, Chicago; and men's fashions by Kuppenheimer, Hawthorn Shopping Center, Vernon Hills. Cost of the luncheon and fashion show is $15.

Famous chefs benefit

Taste the best Lake County's finest chefs have to offer at the 13th annual "Famous Chef Cuisine" benefit presented by Victory Memorial Hospital from 4 to 8 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 19. Dozens of gourmet and specialty restaurants from throughout Lake County will join together at Midlane Country Club, 14565 Yorkhouse Rd., Wadsworth in a celebration of good food. The $25 ticket price offers guests not only a chance to taste the favorites of area chefs, but also to learn from the masters at live cooking demonstrations and admire the creativity of master ice sculptors from Nadeua's of Forest Park. A complimentary 1993 Chef Cuisine Recipe Booklet, containing recipes from participating restaurants, will also be provided to each guest. Proceeds from the event will benefit the Chemical Dependency Programs at Victory Memorial Hospital. Tickets are available by calling 360-4246.

Jud, Will zip up tired 'Oklahoma'

Cowboys that sing and dance are about as un-1990s as things can get and so is the novel "Green Grow the Lilacs," that the Lincolnshire Marriott's new/old musical production, "Oklahoma" is based on.

But Marriott's executive producer Kary M. Walker and Dir. Dyanne Early take almost 50 years off this Rodgers and Hammerstein smash that began a long line of classic hit musical shows by the magical musical duo.

In this production, Laurey and Curly, the lead lovers in the original and also in the movie, remember Shirley Jones and Gordon Macrae, take a back seat to the sidekick and the villain.

Jud is usually an unattractive sleaze that's into porno. David New, a fine actor in his own right, brings a sexier, more human Jud to the Marriott. We're sure more than one lady in the audience is drawn more to Jud than to the stereotyped Curly played by Stephen Buntrock whose rather flat character is saved by an outstanding singing voice.

We don't blame Buntrock for the bland Curly, that's how the part was written in the 1940s and 1950s when all stage heroes needed were good looks and a booming voice.

Stealing the entire Marriott version of this time worn musical is Guy Adkins who changes Will Parker from a likable second banana to a boffo singing and dancing funnyman who lights up the entire stage with his presence. Bravo to his upbeat "Everything's Up To Date In Kansas City!"

On the distaff side, Rita Harvey's

David New

Laurey; Ann Whitney's Aunt Eller and Kelly Prybycien's Ado Annie are all predictable and acceptable, their roles slightly paled by the cobwebs of the last 50 years of performances.

Although this version of the famous "Dream Ballet" is more titillating because of the sensual Jud, it's still too long. R&H tend to do this, ergo the boring Arthur in the ice cube part of "Camelot."

For those who are familiar with "Oklahoma," you won't be disappointed and for new comers, the title song and "Oh What a Beautiful Morning" still cause goose bumps and make one want to jump up and join the chorus.—by GLORIA DAVIS

Horoscope

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) ★ Family and business talks are highlighted this week. Someone in a high place is happy to extend you a favor. Shared togetherness is the week's happy theme. You could go overboard in making plans to have guests over this weekend.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You will have success now with a work project. Artistic endeavors are favored. You will begin to warm up to a strange new idea. Taking a fun chance now and then won't hurt. It is a romantic time for those who travel. Benefits come from in-laws.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) It is an excellent time to shop for the home and family. You will be doing your share to help the less fortunate now. This week's financial developments are positive, but you tend to spend unwisely now. You may be confused about a romantic situation.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) ★ Your mental perceptions are very sharp this week. Communicative skills are tops. A note of the unexpected makes romance a delight now. The weekend may bring some disarray at home. Try not to let things get out of hand.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) It is a week of delight for those who can travel now. Good news comes by phone or letter. Buying and selling are favored. An unusual business move pays off. Those who exaggerate and fabricate can leave you feeling a bit bewildered later in the week. Take this in stride.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A stimulating exchange of ideas occurs between you and a friend. You will be receiving some good financial news this week. The week brings excitement in romance and perhaps a fascinating flirtation. However, be sure to keep your wits about you when it comes to spending money.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) ★ It is best to see what develops before going overboard about a possible career opportunity. A stroke of inspiration now leads to decorative changes at home. A private talk is of a business nature. The weekend is a time of special closeness between you and a family member.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You will enjoy a lecture, class or seminar this week. Doing something different together is the key to happiness in romance now. You are happy about a little secret shared by just the two of you. The weekend finds you mulling over a question without getting any answers.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Business interests are favored this week. Artistic types meet with commercial opportunities. Career developments are exciting and have moneymaking potential. Guard against excesses when socializing. Judgment may be off about money this weekend.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You will feel that things are finally breaking for you in your career. Partners are in agreement about mutual concerns. It is an exciting week where romantic interests are concerned. The weekend proves to be very romantic. However, your usual practicality deserts you now.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) New insights come to you this week about career concerns. Benefits come through travel. You will be making some innovative decorating changes at home. Privacy abets romance, and family members are very close now. Too many things on your mind may compete for your attention this weekend.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) ★ The financial picture brightens for you this week. A good understanding is reached between you and a child. Enjoy good times this week with newly met friends. At the same time, don't become financially involved with people that you really don't know very well.

Classic Packard car show set

Classic Packard automobiles combined with vintage designer fashions from the Cuneo Collection will come together for the second year to form a live and very lively exhibit "Styling Through the Decades" at the Cuneo Museum and Gardens, 1350 N. Milwaukee Ave., Vernon Hills on Sunday, Sept. 19.

The exhibit combines the best elements of cultural style in two very important areas, according to Director Barbara Hirschfeld. The idea is to show how design affects culture and how culture affects all design of its period. In addition to the cars and fashions the outdoor exhibit will feature a live jazz band J. C. Clark's Jazz People and a rock band "The Medicine Men."

Last year over 40 classic Packards lined the golf course of the museum. The car show opens at 11 a.m. Brunch is served from 11 a.m. by George Jewell Catering in the Garden Pavilion Restaurant. Admission is $4 per person. Call 362-3042 for further information.

Mel passes directors' test in 'Face'

Mel Gibson's directorial debut in "Man Without a Face," though not earth shaking, proves that this popular actor can sit in the director's chair anytime with ease.

Jumping on the "Ugly Can Be Beautiful" bandwagon, already successfully ridden by "The Phantom of the Opera," and television's "Beauty and the Beast," Gibson's story about a teacher badly scarred in a controversial car crash, who befriends a troubled youngster, is a heart-warming one.

The youngster, played beautifully by Nick Stahl, needs academic help in escaping a dysfunctional home. He wants to go to a well-known prep school but he has to pass a test to do so. Gibson becomes his secret tutor.

Gibson, despite the fact that half of his face looks like flesh colored silly putty, is not difficult to look at in his "monster" role. He is little too gruff and sometimes flat as the outcast teacher, who has become a cultural recluse in an isolated home in New England after being accused of molesting a boy who also died in the same car crash that maimed him.

His character lacks the personality and insight he has displayed in past pictures, but it is acceptable.

The film was shot in Maine and the cinematography is breathtaking. We may have made the ending a little more personal and satisfying, but overall, "Face" is well worth big time ticket prices.

"Face," which is rated PG-13, gets three-and-one-half stars out of five in our estimation.—by GLORIA DAVIS

Sequoits comeback bid falls short, 14-13 to host Wildcats

Antioch High's football team learned the very hard way that football can be a game of inches.

For it was just a matter of that distance which separated Antioch from a win in a 14-13 heartbreaking loss to Fenton in Bensenville.

"We were down 14-0 but we came back. We learned throughout the game. It is a learning process and we played a lot of young people," Antioch Coach Del Pechauer said.

Josh Johnston, the leading Antioch rusher with 63 yards, scored from 13-yards out to cap a drive in the game's final minute. Quarterback Casey O'Connell's pass to Adam Healey fell short. "It was just out of his (Healey's) reach," Pechauer said.

O'Connell, a 6-1, 176 pound senior, completed six-of-16 passes for 127 yards against a Bison defense picked to be a contender in the North Suburban. "He did a real good job," Pechauer said.

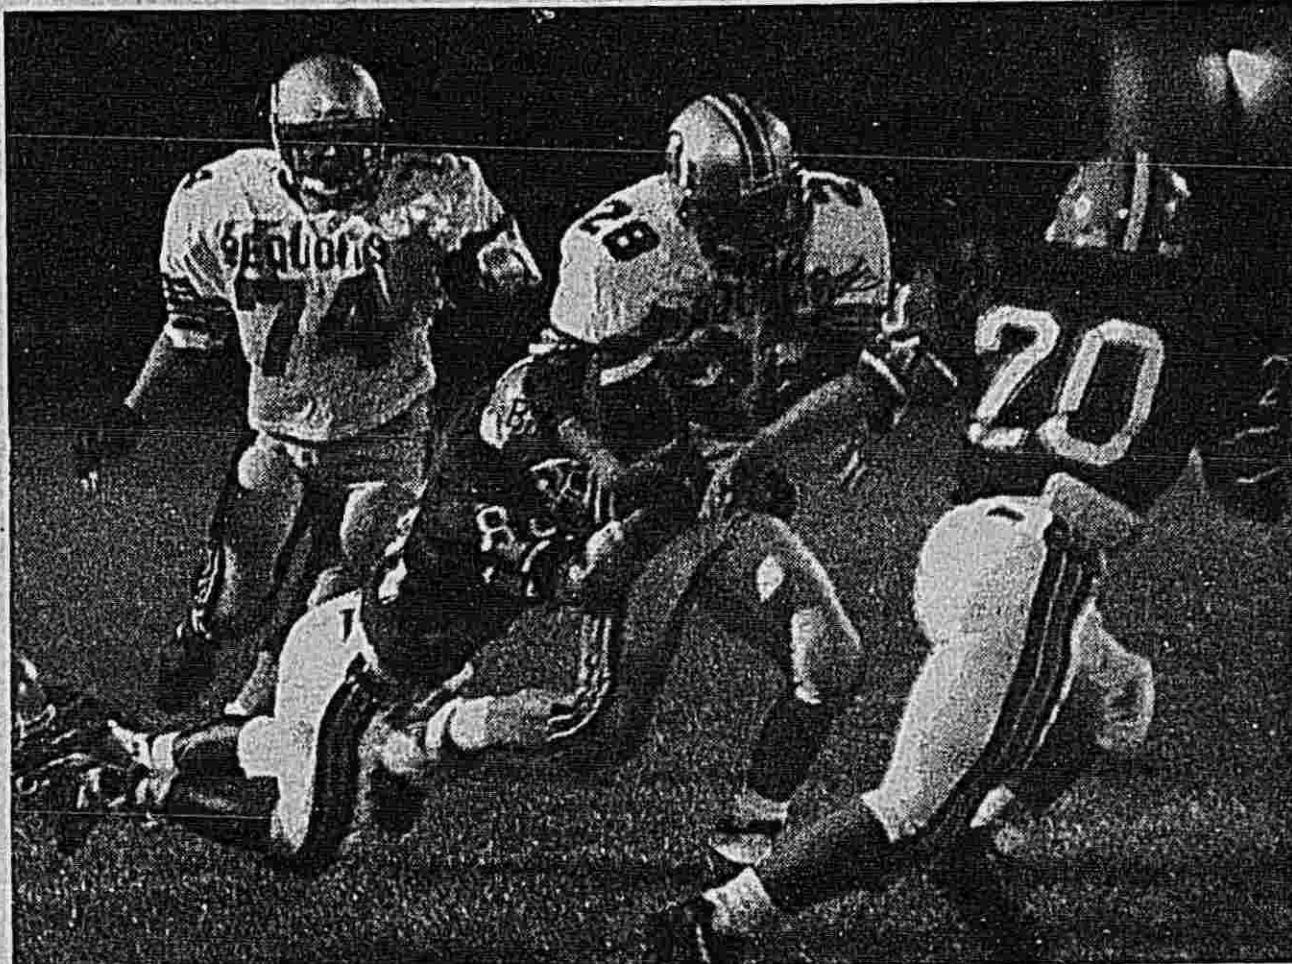

The 0-1 Sequoits face another league power when they host Libertyville at 1 p.m. Sept. 11.

The Wildcats feature Reed Christensen as a fullback. "He is pretty tough and the next guy (Kevin Dixon) is not too shabby either. It will be a tough game," Pechauer said.

The Sequoits got back into the game on a 56-yard pass from O'Connell to Tom Furlan.

Harold Vargas of Fenton burst into the open in the first quarter for a 91-yard TD jaunt.

Defensively, Mike Shea was a standout from his position as lineman, the coach said. Shea also had 21 yards rushing.

Antioch running back Jim Dawe nearly fumbles the football as a Fenton player attempts to tackle him. Fenton beat Antioch 14-13 when a game-winning two-point conversion for Antioch fell incomplete. Antioch plays Libertyville on Sept. 11 in its home opener at 1 p.m.—Photo by Steve Young.

Rockets zoom in opener, prepare for unusual foe

Richmond-Burton will be taking on not your run-of-the-mill football team when it makes its second trip north in as many weeks Sept. 10.

"Ethan Allen is a juvenile detention home," Rockets coach Mark Dodd said.

The Rockets zoomed to victory in game one. The defending Class 2A state champs downed Black Hawk of Wisconsin 34-0.

Senior quarterback Jeff Christensen ran for two touchdowns, completed two-point conversion passes and Eric Rasmussen returned a fumbled punt as the Rockets blew open a 14-0 halftime lead.

"At times, we looked good, and our line improved as the game went along," Dodd said.

Lucas Dehmow, a 5-10, 165 pound junior, led the offense with 88 yards rushing. Christensen had 63 from his QB spot, Brian Steadman 55 and Eric Rasmussen 41 yards.

"Christensen played very well. You could tell he is a senior," Dodd said.

"We really hit hard on defense and that took the heart from them," Dodd said.

Richmond had good field position twice, inside the 30 and the 10-yard-lines.

Richmond returns seven starters from the state championship team.

Dodd said Genoa-Kingston and Byron are the teams to beat in the Big Northern-white division this year.

This is Dodd's first position as head coach. He played defensive end for Waterburg College in Waverly, Iowa.

Antioch field hockey nets first victory in two seasons

Antioch High's girls field hockey team returned to the winning ways which led it to the state finals just two years ago with a thrilling win over North Shore Country Day.

The Sequoits won 6-5 in the second of two 10-minute overtime sessions. Junior Jamie Rinehart scored the winning goal, her third of the match, three minutes into the sudden-victory period.

"They changed the rules in field hockey this year. If there is a tie after regulation, there is a 10-minute overtime and then a 10-minute sudden victory," Cindy Martin, Antioch coach, said.

Jessica Kane, Amy Glenn and Dawn Deserui also scored for Antioch.

Antioch led 4-2 before North Shore rallied in the second half.

Martin, in her first year as field hockey coach, is optimistic.

"We would like to be competitive because of the seniors, but we are going up against teams like Lake Forest whose players attend field hockey camps," Martin said.

Lady Sequoits defeat Wheeling

Antioch Girls Golf coach Steve Wapon is showing his enthusiasm as his team shot its lowest score of the season and defeated host Wheeling 240-268 as Sarah Rockow paced Antioch with a meet low 52.

The Lady Sequoits continue to improve, according to Wapon, as the Wheeling meet is the best the girls have played all season.

Wapon. Rockow, only a freshman, was helped by senior Heather Laffery, 63, sophomore Kelly Periman, 63 and freshman Erika Francisco, 62 and Lisa Murphy, 65.

Richter, Rohde find a winner at UW-LaCrosse

by THOMAS STEVENS
Lakeland Newspapers

There once was a story about a local young man who won three championship rings. This season he has the chance to receive his fourth ring if his team remains dedicated and healthy.

Michael Jeffrey Jordan, you ask? No way, it's Antioch native Jeremy Richter, who has won two NAIA track and field championships and one NCAA Division III title while getting his degree in marketing at the University of Wisconsin at La-Crosse.

The 1989 ACHS grad, now in his final year at UW-La-Crosse, is looking forward to his last season of eligibility before having to the real world and watch competitive football from either the stand or on television.

"Last year's team could sneak up on teams," said Richter. "We won't be able to do that this year. If we don't win it again though, I will be very disappointed."

In 1992, Richter's team won the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl, which is the title game for the NCAA Division III season, against Washington and Jefferson College in Bradenton, Fla.

"It was a fantastic feeling to fly down to Florida and play a game while it's so cold back home," said Richter.

Richter, a 6-foot-1, 240 pound defensive lineman, will return as a starter

"Football is real big up here," said Richter, who said his team averages 5,000 fans per game.

Sport Illustrated rated UW-LaCrosse, in its college football preview, the number two team in the NCAA III bracket. Sporting News ranked Richter's team the number one team in Division III.

"In Antioch, we didn't win much, but now it's incredible," said Richter, who rooms with former Antioch player Joe Rohde. The Antioch Sequoits went 3-6 when Richter and Rohde were seniors.

Rohde has two rings, one from the NCAA Division III win last year and another from the R.C. Cola Bowl, the Junior College championship game, while at Harper College in Hoffman Estates. Rohde is one of the team's starting linebackers.

LaCrosse open the season on Sept. 11 at Winona State in Minnesota, with the home opener scheduled for Sept. 18 against UW-Oshkosh. On that day Richter and Rohde will be presented with their championship rings.

Another milestone for LaCrosse will be head coach Roger Harring's 200th career win, which will occur early in the season.

"We want to get that one for him as soon as possible," said Richter.

Richmond's Dodd lone new mentor to gain 'W'

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

They reached for that special clipboard, whistle and donned the colors of their new high schools.

From Wisconsin to Grayslake, new coaches led their charges to the field.

Only one, Mark Dodd at Richmond-Burton, would come away the winner.

The Rockets, defending Class 2A champs, did not miss a beat in a 34-0 win over Black Hawk of Wisconsin.

Other openers saw Kaneland crush

Grayslake 27-3 and Cary-Grove topple Wauconda 43-0. Lake Forest breezed past North Chicago 29-6.

Dodd, who succeeds J. Randy Hofman, was a defensive end at Waterburg College in Waverly, Iowa.

Some high school football coaches would bemoan having only 30 players on a varsity team.

But not Grayslake mentor Dan Dillon. "When I was at Foreman High School in Chicago, we had 17 players and went 7-2," Dillon said.

Dillon brings a Chicago Public League background to the Rams and the Northwest Suburban Conference.

He played three years at Foreman, then at Northeast Illinois before returning to Foreman to coach.

"It is a different situation," he said, comparing city and suburban schools. "You have a wide diversity of kids."

He knows Marian Central coach Don Proft from his Chicago Public League days.

Dillon is one of four new head coaches Lake County football fans will be getting to know in 1993. Two others, Dan Giebel at Wauconda and Morris Norman at North Chicago, are former assistants there.

"My direction is to improve the athletes' test scores, improve their GPAs so they can move on," Norman said.

Norman draws his views on athletics from the legendary Ott Bay, who coached him while he was a running back at Waukegan High.

"Mr. Bay used to say, 'if you will try my way, I will make the arrangements.'"

"From what I used to see, an athlete used to be the one who was giving some direction in school. Now it is the subversive kid. If we can turn that around, that would be great," Norman said.

The long-time assistant knows the impact sports can have.

He would like to get the base of players up from 14-15 to 25-30.

Card collecting business puts emphasis on basketball

Card collecting, national experts state, is on the decline. The boom of five years ago is over and a leaner, meaner industry is taking over.

Local collectors gathered in Gurnee Sunday for a show at the Gurnee American Legion believe there is a transfer of popularity from baseball to other sports.

"Basketball has taken over the last year and one-half," Ron Rae said. "It started with Jordan and continues with Shaq O'Neill."

Rae, a Mundelein postman by day, said he has not noticed a decline in the market, but he is not a big dealer.

"My collection started with Billy Ripken Jr.," Rae said. His son, Kyle, age 11, also collects cards.

The collection includes a misprint of a swearword on a baseball bat as well as the usual Ryne Sandberg, Mark Grace, and others.

"I used to buy the cards for $25 a box. It turned out to be a part-time job," Rae said.

Rae does not charge admission for his Mundelein and Gurnee shows. Tops, Upper Deck, hologram and other varieties of cards are shown. The next show will be Sept. 26 at Mundelein Holiday Inn.

"In this area, it is all Bulls and Shaq," David Staral of Round Lake said.

The Grant High freshman has been collecting baseball cards since 1989. "Frank Thomas (White Sox slugger) is the hottest item in baseball cards now," he said.

The collection started with a 1989 with a card of baseball player Ken Griffey Jr.

Prices at the show ranged from a nickel to $500.

For the over-30 baseball fan, there is no longer any bubble gum with the cards.

"They stopped doing that in 1989. The gum was wrecking the cards," Staral said.

Carmel fumbles turn over game to Marian 29-13

Chicago Heights—After leading early in the game 7-6, the Carmel Corsairs lost to East Suburban Catholic Conference foe Marian Catholic 29-13 in a non-conference, season-opening game for both teams.

Jason Harper scored Carmel's first touchdown on a four-yard run in the first quarter. (Matt Leahy kick) Carmel's late touchdown came when Mike Choroski caught a 12-yard pass from J. R. Campo. (Run failed.)

Jacobs 34, Grant 15

Algonquin—A wildly entertaining football game at Harry D. Jacobs High School, including three lead changes, ended with the favored Grant Bulldogs losing to Jacobs 34-15 after Grant led at halftime 15-14.

Scoring for Grant were Aaron Butler, a five-yard run and Dave Stone, a 40-yard pass from Shawn Powers. The Grant sophomore team defeated Jacobs 20-6.

McHenry 16, Round Lake 0

McHenry—Fox Valley powerhouse McHenry limited the Round Lake offense to only two first downs and 92 yards total offense in a 16-0 non-conference victory.

Cary-Grove 43, Wauconda 0

Cary—The Cary-Grove offense out rushed the Wauconda Bulldogs 199-88 in a non-conference rout for the Trojans. The Bulldog offense gave up two interceptions for touchdowns in the defeat.

On an up note, the Wauconda sophomores tied Cary-Grove's squad 12-12.

Richmond-Burton 34, Blackhawk (Wis.) 0

South Wayne, Wis.—The defending Class 2A state champions were lead

Football Report

by senior quarterback Jeff Christensen's two touchdowns and two kicked conversions in Richmond's season opening win over out-of-state Blackhawk.

The win extended the Rockets winning streak to 10 games and was the first for new head coach Mark Dodd. Running back Eric Rasmussen returned a fumble for a touchdown that sparked a 20-point third quarter, which put the game out of reach.

Kaneland 27, Grayslake 3

Grayslake—Grayslake kicker Paul Dor's 27-yard field goal was the highlight for Grayslake in a 27-3 loss to Kaneland. The Grayslake offense committed four turnovers in the game.

Warren 21, Woodstock 0

Warren's Quenton Jackson rushed for 92 yards and one touchdown, while Blue

Marengo 19, Johnsburg 6

Johnsburg—Johnsburg's Brandon Gough caught the Skyhawks only touchdown with :36 seconds before the half in a 19-6 loss to Marengo in both team's season openers.

On defense, Chad Kamp and Matt Metz each had interceptions, while Jeff Marciniak recovered a Marengo fumble in the loss. Marengo's sophomores defeated Johnsburg's squad 16-7.

Lake Zurich 34, Mount Prospect 31

Mount Prospect—Lake Zurich running back Mike Schauder scored three touchdowns, including the 10-yard game winner in a triple overtime victory over Bear's head coach Wayne Kulinski's former school Mount Prospect 34-31.

Kulinski, a running back, starred at Mount Prospect during the middle 1960s and had not been back to his former school in a number of years. Sophomore sensation Mike Stummpp, in his first varsity game, opened the game with a 95-yard kick off return for a touchdown and did an oncore presentation in the second quarter with an 85-yard kickoff return for another touchdown.

Fenton 14, Antioch 13

Bensenville—The Antioch Sequoits, 0-9 last season, nearly defeated a heavily favored Fenton team, 14-13, in the team's season opener on Sept. 3.

Sequoit receiver Tom Furlan scored on a 56-yard pass from senior quarterback

Lake Forest 29, North Chicago 6

North Chicago—Fatigue was a factor, just 20 North Chicago players dressed for the team's home and season opener against Lake Forest, as favored Scouts scored 29 unanswered points to defeat the iron-man Warhawks team 29-6.

The Warhawks only score came on Ryan Turner's 83-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown in the first quarter. Warren is next for North Chicago.

Libertyville 28, Mundelein 0

Mundelein—In what was a close game until that point, Libertyville Wildcat Bob Paulson caused a fumble, recovered it, and ran 80 yards for a touchdown which put the game out of reach for Libertyville in a 28-0 win over host Mundelein.

Libertyville's defense caused four turnovers, two for scores, including Reed Christensen's 22-yard interception return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Stevenson 22, Zion-Benton 21

Zion—Stevenson halfback Faraji Leary scored three touchdowns, including the score that tied the game at 21-21 with 1:36 remaining, to help propel Stevenson over host Zion-Benton 22-21.

Leary rushed for 99 yards, most of which came on Stevenson 82-yard winning drive, which took more than eight minutes off the clock. Stevenson converted six fourth down conversions in the contest.

Vikings wide receivers run past Thunder in 46-6 rout

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Lake County Vikings wide receivers Jerry Nash and Frank Ruiz were joking along the sidelines, comparing statistics from a day in which they led the way in an almost 400-yard passing attack.

"We started off slow, but we put it together and everyone stepped it up in the second half," Vikes quarterback Jon Shoemaker said.

The Vikings bounced back from a 38-0 shellacking at the hands of defending national champ Racine to win 46-6 over the Chicago Thunder. The Vikes, 2-1, scored 25 points in the fourth quarter as Shoemaker threw for 387 yards, Ruiz caught three touchdown passes and Nash one. Ruiz won the statistical battle with his long catches for 181 yards, 10 better than Nash.

Ruiz turned a five-yard pass play into a 61-yard TD run in the third quarter for a 20-6 lead which put the game away.

Lake County faces another Racine-like team when it travels to Carl Sandburg High to battle Palos Force in a 7 p.m.

game Sept. 11.

"Frank is a great receiver and so is Jerry. All of our receivers are good at catching the ball. Frank has mastered that move. He did it in practice and one other time this year. We weren't throwing the slant a lot because they had a tall defensive end," Shoemaker said.

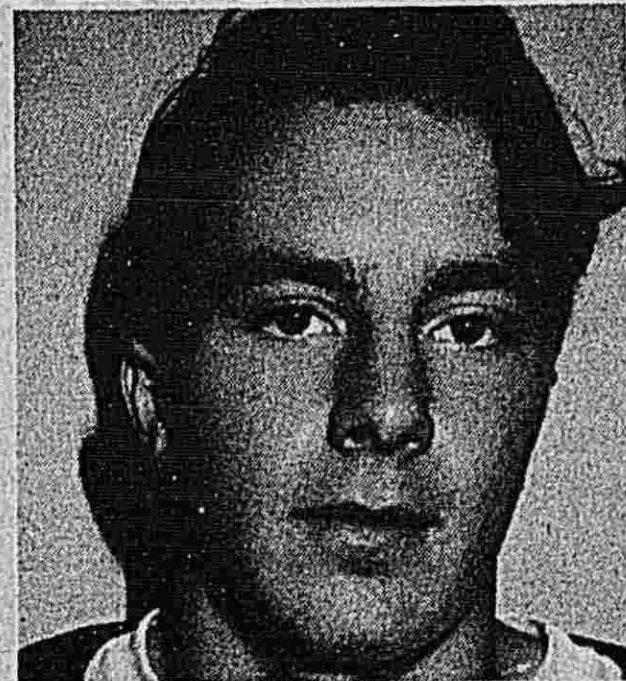

"It was an emotional high getting ready for Racine. This will help us get motivated for Palos," Shoemaker said.

"It was by far my best game," Ruiz said. "He was giving me a fake so I broke it outside."

Ruiz is on his fourth year with the Vikes. He was a marked man against the talented Racine secondary. "You just hold your head up and look forward to the next game, until we play them at the end of the season," the 1986 Waukegan West grad said.

Ruiz, a security guard, likes going up against the competition in the Midwest Football League. "There is good competition in this league," he said.

Lakeland Newspapers OUTSTANDING PREP PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Wildcats' linemen earn accolades for strong start

Veteran Libertyville football fans will remember the exploits of Tom Knollenberg, a 1984 graduate of LHS who eventually made the squad at Indiana University.

Then there was Scott Knollenberg, who dared offenses in 1988 and then Mike, who teamed up with Matt Christensen to form a solid wall at linebacker in the 1990 season.

Enter Sean Knollenberg, a 5-10, 225 pound senior guard. Knollenberg, center Matt Frederick and guard Aaron Peterson received the recognition few offensive linemen receive as they were awarded game balls following a 28-0 season-opening win over Mundelein Saturday.

"My brother Mike gave me a big pep talk. He said the knee might hurt a little bit, but you have to gut it out," Knollenberg said.

Knollenberg has followed in the family tradition, playing football in Libertyville since the fourth grade.

"I think there is always room for improvement. Our offensive line can get off the ball well and can execute pretty well with traps. That play is well-designed. Nobody can stop it, if it is Mundelein or whoever. It is difficult to stop," Knollenberg said.

Antioch will be the next team to try and do so as the Sequoias host the Wildcats at 1 p.m. Sept. 11. Mundelein has its inaugural game under the lights at MHS at offense," Todd Gierthy, who had 36 carries in six tries.

Veteran mentor Christensen knows the toils and troubles of an offensive line. They create the holes so the backs can get the headlines.

they are out there are their mothers," he quipped.

"In the second half, we had that one good drive to start the third quarter but they (Mundelein's Sam Jaramillo) took the ball out of Robertson's (Andrew's) hands."

Overtime

7:30 p.m. Sept. 10 against Zion-Benton.

The Wildcats, led by Reed Christensen's 71 yards in eight carries, racked up 196 yards in 29 carries, an average of 6.7 yards a carry. Christensen, playing his newfound home of running back, averaged 8.8 yards on up-the-middle traps.

"It was pretty much there the whole game. All the blocks were there. Reed and I alternated every other series and a junior, Kevin Dickson, comes in fresh on

New gym helps Corsairs spikers set for new season

After all, a net is a net is a net, right?

But for Carmel Coach Jo Gerardi, moving into the new, spunky gym at CHS is a world of difference.

"It is a wonderful facility. With three courts, we don't have to share with the freshman team. Not that we don't like the freshmen team, but we can do things we could not do before," Gerardi said.

The Corsairs were the first Carmel High team to hold a competition in the new gym Tuesday on the home opener against Trinity.

The Corsairs lost in the season opener at Glenbrook South 12-15, 15-8, 10-15.

"We were behind 9-0 in the first game but managed to get back in it. We did some things real well against a very tall team. The girls knew, at times, how to disrupt their blocks," Gerardi said.

The Corsairs are a short team this year, as the tallest player is 5-8 all-around player Jenny Logue.

Juniors on the squad include the sister combination of Kerry and Kelly Penny. Tina Langer is back as setter, Carrie Gmeiner all-around. Bridgete Chilicki, a setter, is also a junior.

Stephanie Gopp, front row, is on the varsity as a first-year senior.

Two sophomores have made the varsity team. They are Sarah Worklan, daughter of boys assistant basketball coach Dave Worklan, a setter and passer and Amanda Harmon, a front row player.

The Corsairs were at St. Viator Sept. 10.

Gerardi expects Regina, Marrilac and Good Counsel to be teams to beat in the GCAC North.

Walkathon to raise funds for mental illness

The Alliance for the Mentally Ill of Lake County (AMI) is looking for sponsors for a walkathon to be held Oct. 2 in Libertyville to raise funds for research and community rehabilitation services for persons with psychiatric disabilities.

The walk is a kick-off for National Mental Illness Awareness Week. During this week, mental health organizations throughout the county will draw attention to a national health problem and seek to educate the community with regard to illnesses that will strike one out of five people in a lifetime.

by MARK HAHN
Lakeland Newspapers

"Mental illness is more common than people think," said Marilyn Stanley, president of AMI in Lake County. "It's also important to know that serious mental illness such as schizophrenia and manic depression are at no fault brain diseases such as diabetes or heart disease, and usually strike in the late teens-early twenties."

"Most of the people we serve have had some degree of education, and some are educated very well. With the proper support and opportunities, many of them can be productive and live independently and live a very satisfying life."

The awareness walk, a 10 kilometer walkathon along Milwaukee Ave, will originate at 9:30 a.m. on the grounds of the Hollister Corp. The walk is designed to educate the community and raise funds for education, advocacy, vocational and recreational opportunities, housing and research.

AMI is a non-profit, self-help organization whose purposes are to eradicate mental illnesses and improve the quality of life for persons of all ages and diseases. The primary functions of the Alliance are support, education, and advocacy—for research services and education of all professionals, service providers, and the general public.

"We're responsible for the Development Independent Center in Waukegan, a vocational rehab center for support services," said Stanley. "We also have support services at the College of Lake County to help students with psychiatric disabilities to make successful enrollment, and our current project is to develop creative businesses that accommodate their disability."

The center uses creative businesses, such as direct mail services, to help people with psychiatric disabilities to get jobs in the regular work force.

"Some people may not be able to go into a regular work force, and these creative businesses can serve as a stepping stone for them to get into the regular work force," said Stanley. "It also may be the only level that they are able to use."

As for advantages, Stanley said that most jobs are entry level jobs, and creative businesses can structure itself to give opportunities for advancement.

AMI offers understanding, encouragement, and mutual support to all who are faced with chronic mental illness of a loved one. Family members learn coping skills by sharing their experiences and exploring solutions to common problems. Families learn not to be alone, the illness is treatable, and the illness is not anyone's fault.

"AMI has been a godsend. Before organizing, families were faced with their problems by themselves, and due to confidentiality, a lot of the information they needed to know in order to understand different problems or what they should do to be helpful they didn't have. Now families can meet together and can share with one another how they deal with problems."

"The major advantage when your in an organization like this is that your in a better position to improve services, and most of the advancements in mental health have occurred in the past 10-15 years," said Stanley. "They are the driving force for change. The relapse rate for mental health patients has been as high as 50 percent throughout the county. When we can develop rehab services, relapse reduces rapidly."

For more information on AMI or the walkathon, contact AMI at 249-1515.

Learning to stay fit

September is National Cholesterol Month, and the Lake County Health Department wants you to "Have a Heart" and learn the facts about cholesterol.

"High levels of blood cholesterol, along with smoking, high blood pressure, and family history are all associated with increased risk of heart disease," according to Mary Carter, R.N., M.P.H., Director of Nursing Services at the Lake County Health Department. "In heart disease, cholesterol is deposited on the walls of the arteries. The more fats and cholesterol in your blood, the more likely they will clog the arteries over time. If a major artery becomes completely blocked, the result is a heart attack."

Carter pointed out, however, that cholesterol levels are controllable. A simple blood test measures the levels of cholesterol in the blood.

The Health Department recommends that every adult 20 years of age and older should have their cholesterol measured at least once every five years. If cholesterol is elevated, the first step may be to reduce your dietary intake of fat and cholesterol.

The following are some guidelines to help reduce cholesterol in your diet:

Choose skim or one percent fat milk, and nonfat or low-fat yogurt and cheeses.

Eat no more than six ounces of cooked lean meat, fish or skinless poultry per day.

Limit your intake of eggs and, in particular, egg yolks to three to four per week.

Use fats and oils sparingly, no more than five to eight teaspoon servings per day.

Limit your consumption.

Halle seeking a greater awareness of Dystonia

Dystonia Awareness Week continues until Sept. 12.

A neurological disorder that produces involuntary muscle spasms which twist the body into painful angles, dystonia is often misdiagnosed as nerves. Over 350,000 people in the United States suffer from the disease.

Patients experience a variety of symptoms ranging from shaking hands or involuntary blinking to a whispered voice or pronounced muscle spasms that cause excruciating pain. They often feel abandoned and alone, thinking that no one else can imagine what is happening to them.

Rita Halle of Lake Villa was diagnosed as having dystonia about three years ago at Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center. "When Dr. Comella walked in he looked at me and said, 'You have dystonia!'"

Active in the Chicago Chapter of Dystonia Research in Highland Park, Halle would like to see a chapter in Lake County.

"If I find enough other people who have the disease we could start our own group," she said.

Anyone with an interest in finding out more about the disease or organizing a support group in Lake County should contact the Research Foundation at 170 Lakeside Pl., Highland Park, IL 60035, (708)299-0095.

AIDS/HIV support groups offer help

The Lake County Health Dept. sponsors ongoing information and support groups in Waukegan and Mundelein for persons who test HIV antibody positive, and persons who have been diagnosed as having ARC or AIDS; and in Mundelein for families and friends of those afflicted.

The Waukegan group for those individuals infected with HIV virus, or who have tested positive for AIDS, meets from 7 to 8:30 p.m. every Tuesday at the lower level conference room in the Belvidere Medical Bldg., 2400 Belvidere Rd., Waukegan. For more information on this group, call 360-6770. The Mundelein group for those individuals infected with HIV virus, or who have tested positive for AIDS, meets on the second and fourth Wednesday of the month from 3:30 to 5 p.m. at the Holiday Inn in Mundelein, at the intersection of Rtes. 83 and 45. For information on this group, call 360-6891.

The Mundelein group for families and friends of those infected with the HIV virus, or who have tested positive for AIDS meets on the first and third Wednesday evenings of the month, starting at 7:30 p.m., at the American Red Cross office, 5335 N. Lake, Mundelein. For more information on this group, call 360-6891.

PROSTATE SCREENING—Prostate cancer is the most common cancer affecting men. It is their second leading cause of cancer death, striking one in 11 males. The good news is that prostate cancer can often be cured if detected early. To increase the chance of early detection, physicians encourage men, age 40 and over, to have an annual exam for prostate cancer. Victory Memorial Hospital, 1324 N. Sheridan Rd., Waukegan is offering screenings on Sept. 23 from 6 to 9 p.m. Call

Explosive collision kills two on Rte. 45

by ALEC JUNG
Lakeland Newspapers

A head-on collision a 1/2 mile north of Grass Lake Road killed the two drivers of the vehicles and severely burned a passenger in a fiery crash.

Eric Aven 22, 207794 N. Williams, Prairie View, and Richard Jones, 42, Park City, were killed instantly, said Corporal Thomas Braze of Lake County Sheriff's Department. The passenger in Aven's vehicle, Orazio Longo, 22, of Prospect Heights, was flown by the Flight for Life Helicopter to a burn center in Milwaukee. Thomas Derris 30, Berwyn, wasn't seriously injured when he attempted to avoid the accident in front of him.

According to Braze, Aven attempted driving southbound on Route 45 in the northbound lane with his 1979 Firebird trying to get past Derris' vehicle, which was carrying a boat, and struck Jones' Jeep Wagoneer head-on.

"One of the cars must have been going at an excessive rate speed," said Braze. "Both cars exploded on impact," said Braze. "We never see cars explode at impact like that anymore with improved safety devices."

Braze said some alert residents probably saved Longo's life by their quick action.

"The neighbors heard the crash and some of the neighbors went out with fire extinguishers and hoses. They contributed to saving the passenger's life. The fire was pretty well extinguished when the fire department arrived," Braze said.

Braze said Derris' vehicle was just trying to avoid the accident and crashed. "It was hit by debris and he jackknifed his car into the ditch," Braze said.

Route 45 has become a dangerous road to travel on. The intersection of Sand Lake Road and Route 45 had 14 accidents from 1991 and 1992; four of them involving injury. This year alone, one weekend there were two fatal accidents at that intersection.

Both drivers were wearing their seatbelts. Alcohol doesn't appear to be a factor in the crash, according to Braze.

There is no further investigation into the accident because of the death of the drivers, Braze said.

Raising fun(ds)

Members of various Lake County 4-H groups hosted a fund-raiser at Quig's in Mundelein. Donations were split between 4-H, Save-a-pet, and leader dogs for the blind. Youth brought their 4-H projects, including animals, so that the public could see what 4-Hers do. "These are wonderful kids," said leader Linda Kavich. "They are very giving." — Photo by Gene Gabry

County auction offers bargains

Looking for that rare bargain from a unit of local government? Perhaps your own squad car (slightly used) or a non-polluting bicycle to get to work. The annual Lake County Auction provides just the opportunity to buy these items and many more.

This year's auction will be held Saturday, Sept. 11 at 10 a.m. at the Lake County Fairgrounds, Route 45 and 120 in Grayslake. Inspection and registration begins at 9 a.m. day of sale.

Besides the county, agencies participating in the sale include Deerfield, Fremont, Vernon and Warren Townships, the Villages of Green Oaks, Gurnee, Lake Bluff, Libertyville, Lindenhurst, Round Lake and Vernon Hills. The City of Waukegan Police Department and the Lake County Forest Preserve District.

In addition to excess government owned property, unclaimed and confiscated items from several local law enforcement agencies will also be auctioned.

Slated to be sold to the highest bidder are forty-one (41) automobiles and sixteen (16) trucks. For when the snow flies this winter, the County suggests you may want to consider buying a plow and spreader to go along with a truck. And don't forget the AM/FM stereo cassette and a cellular phone to make this unit complete.

Other items to be sold include office furniture and equipment, computers, bicycles, construction equipment, tools, radios and jewelry.

CLC is offering pre-retiree course

Issues affecting the retiree-to-be will be discussed in "Retiree U," a three-week course offered from 7 to 9:30 p.m., Sept. 21, 23 and 28 in Room C-002 at the College of Lake County Grayslake campus, 19351 W. Washington St. The course will be repeated Nov. 8, 10 and 15.

Topics discussed will include "Estate Planning," "Long-Term Health Care," "Financial Planning and Fundamentals of Investments," "Social Security," "Risk and Economic Management" and "Creating Your Own Retirement Plan."

The cost is $48 which includes admission for two (student and a guest) and course materials. The course is sponsored by the Center for Economic Development at CLC in cooperation with the retirement specialists from Prudential-Bache Securities.

To register, call 223-3615 or fax to 223-9371. Visa, MasterCard and Discover will be accepted.
